(XVI of 1974)

[21st December, 1974]

An Act

to provide for salaries, allowances and privileges of Members of the Provincial Assembly of the Province of the Punjab.

Preamble.— WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for salaries, allowances and privileges of the Members of the Provincial Assembly of the Province of the Punjab;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Punjab Provincial Assembly (Salaries, Allowances and Privileges of Members) Act, 1974.

(2) It shall come into force at once, but shall be deemed to have taken effect on and from the 1st day of October, 1974.

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) “Assembly” means the Provincial Assembly of the Province of the Punjab;
- (b) “Committee” means a Select Committee or other committee of the Assembly and includes any committee appointed by the Government for a purpose connected with the Assembly and declared by the Government to be a Committee of the Assembly;
- (c) “Government” means the Government of the Punjab;
- (d) “meeting” means a meeting of the Assembly or any of its Committees from the commencement of its business to the termination of the business of a day;
- (e) “Member” means a Member of the Assembly other than an Adviser, Minister, Parliamentary Secretary, Speaker or Deputy Speaker;
- (f) “period of residence on duty” means the period during which a Member resides at a place where a session of the Assembly or of a Committee is held or where any other business connected with his duties as such Member is transacted, for the purpose of attending to such other business and includes—

¹This Act was passed by the Punjab Assembly on 17th December, 1974; assented to by the Governor of the Punjab on 21st December, 1974; and, published in the Punjab Gazette (Extraordinary), dated 21st December, 1974, pages 1582-A to 1582-F.

- (i) in the case of a session of the Assembly, a period of such residence, not exceeding three days, immediately preceding the commencement of the session and a period of such residence, not exceeding three days, immediately following the end of the session; and
 - (ii) in the case of a sitting of a Committee or any other business, a period of such residence not exceeding two days, immediately preceding the commencement of the business of the Committee or other business and a period of such residence, not exceeding two days immediately following the conclusion of the business of the Committee or any other business; and
- (g) “session” means the period commencing on the day of the first meeting of the Assembly after having been summoned and ending on the day the Assembly is prorogued or dissolved.

3. Salary.— (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) and sub-section (3), a Member may draw salary at the rate of ²[seventy six thousand] rupees per mensem:

Provided that a Member who, without permission of the Assembly,—

- (a) fails to attend at least three-fourth of the total number of sittings held in a month; or
- (b) if elected during the course of a month, fails to attend at least three-fourth of the total number of meetings held in that month subsequent to the date on which he takes his oath, shall be ineligible to draw salary for that month.

(2) In the case of a Member who, by virtue of his holding an office of profit in the service of Pakistan declared by law not to disqualify its holder from being a Member, is entitled to receive a salary, the amount of salary to which he is entitled under this Act, shall be only such amount as would not, together with the amount of
