THE OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT, 1923

¹ACT NO. XIX OF 1923

[2nd April, 1923]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law in ²[Pakistan] relating to official secrets.

³[* * * * *]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the law relating to official secrets in ²[Pakistan] should be consolidated and amended;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and application.— (1) This Act may be called the ⁴[*] Official Secrets Act, 1923.

⁵[(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan, and applies also to all citizens of Pakistan and persons in the service of Government, wherever they may be.]

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) any reference to a place belonging to ⁶[Government] includes a place occupied by any department of the Government, whether the place is or is not actually vested in ⁶[Government] ;

(2) expressions referring to communicating or receiving include any communicating or receiving, whether in whole or in part, and whether the sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information itself or the substance, effect or description thereof only be communicated or received; expressions referring to obtaining or retaining any sketch, plan, model, article, note or document, include the copying or causing to be copied of the whole or any part of any sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document; and expressions referring to the communication of any sketch, plan, model, article, note or document include the transfer or transmission of the sketch, plan, model, article, note or document;

¹For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1922, Pt. V, p. 210; and for Report of Select Committee, see ibid., 1923, Pt. V, p. 61.

For temporary amendment of this Act during the continuance of war, and for a period of six months thereafter, see s. 6 of the Defence of India Act, 1939 (35 of 1939), since expired.

The Act has been extended to the Leased Areas of Baluchistan, see the Leased Areas (Laws) Order, 1950 (G.G.O. 3 of 1950), and applied in the Federated Areas of Baluchistan, see Gazette of India, 1937, Pt. I, p. 1499.

This Act has been extended to the Baluchistan States Union, see the Baluchistan States Union (Federal Laws) (Extension) Order, 1953 (G.G.O. 4 of 1953), as amended by the Baluchistan States Union (Federal Laws) (Extension) (Second Amdt.) Order, 1953 (G.G.O. 19 of 1953).

It has also been extended to the Khairpur State, see G.G.O. 5 of 1953, as amended by G.G.O. 25 of 1953.

It has also been extended to the State of Bahawalpur by the Bahawalpur (Extension of Federal Laws) Order, 1953 (G.G.O. 11 of 1953), as amended.

The Act has been and shall be deemed to have been brought into force in Gwadur with effect from the 8th September, 1958, by the Gwadur (Application of Central Laws) Ordinance, 1960 (37 of 1960), s. 2.

This Act has been applied with certain modifications to the Tribal Areas of West Pakistan by Regulation No. I of 1963, s. 2 and Sch. (with effect from the 30th December, 1964).

For notification of Procedure provided under this Act, see the Enemy Agents Ordinance, 1943 (1 of 1943).

²Subs. by the Central Laws (Statue Reform) Ordinance, 1960 (21 of 1960), s. 3 and 2nd Sch. (with effect from the 14th October, 1955), for “the Provinces and the Capital of the Federation” which had been subs. by A.O., 1949, for “British India”.

¹[(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be punishable, —

- (a) where the offence committed is intended or calculated to be, directly or indirectly, in the interest or for the benefit of a foreign power, or is in relation to any work of defence, arsenal, naval, military or air force establishment or station, mine, minefield, factory, dockyard, camp, ship or aircraft or otherwise in relation to the naval, military or air force affairs of Pakistan or in relation to any secret official code, ²[with death, or] with imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years ; and
- (b) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years.]

³[3A. Restriction against photographs, sketches, etc., of prohibited and notified areas. —

(1) No person shall, except under the authority of a written permit granted by or on behalf of the ⁴[appropriate Government], make any photograph, sketch, plan, model, note or representation of any kind of any prohibited place or of any other place or area, notified by the ⁴[appropriate Government] as a place or area with regard to which such restriction appears to that Government to be expedient in the interests of the security of Pakistan, or of any part of or object in any such place or area.

(2) The ⁴[appropriate Government] may, by general or special order make provision for securing that no photograph, sketch, plan, model, note or representation of any kind made under the authority of a permit granted in pursuance of subsection (1) shall be published unless and until the same has been submitted to and approved by such authority or person as may be specified in the order, and may retain or destroy or otherwise dispose of anything so submitted.

(3) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this section, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

(4) The ⁵[Federal Government] may by ⁶notification in the official Gazette empower any Provincial Government to exercise all or any of the powers exercisable by the ⁵[Federal Government] under this section, or under sub-clause (c) or sub-clause (d) of clause (8) of section 2, or under clause (10) of that section.]

4. Communications with foreign agents to be evidence of commission of certain offences. — (1) In any proceedings against a person for an offence under section 3, the fact that he has been in communication with, or attempted to communicate with, a foreign agent, whether within or without ⁷[Pakistan], shall be relevant for the purpose of proving that he has, for a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, obtained or attempted to obtain information which is calculated to be or might be, or is intended to be, directly or indirectly, useful to an enemy.

(2) For the purpose of this section, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, —

- (a) a person may be presumed to have been in communication with a foreign agent if—

- (i) he has, either within or without ¹[Pakistan] visited the address of a foreign agent or consorted or associated with a foreign agent, or
 - (ii) either within or without ¹[Pakistan], the name or address of, or any other information regarding, a foreign agent has been found in his possession, or has been obtained by him from any other person ;
- (b) the expression “foreign agent” includes any person who is or has been or in respect of whom it appears that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting him of being or having been employed by a foreign power, either directly or indirectly, for the purpose of committing an act, either within or without ¹[Pakistan], prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, or who has or is reasonably suspected of having, either within or without ¹[Pakistan], committed, or attempted to commit, such an act in the interests of a foreign power ;
- (c) any address, whether within or without ¹[Pakistan], in respect of which it appears that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting it of being an address used for the receipt of communications intended for a foreign agent; or any address at which a foreign agent resides, or to which he resorts for the purpose of giving or receiving communications, or at which he carries on any business, may be presumed to be the address of a foreign agent, and communications addressed to such an address to be communications with a foreign agent.

5. Wrongful communication, etc., of information.—(1) If any person having in his possession or control any secret official code or password or any sketch, plan, model, article, note, document or information which relates to or is used in a prohibited place or relates to anything in such a place, or which has been made or obtained in contravention of this Act, or which has been entrusted in confidence to him by any person holding office under ²[Government], or which he has obtained or to which he has had access owing to his position as a person who holds or has held office under ²[Government], or as a person who holds or has held a contract made on behalf of ²[Government], or as a person who is or has been employed under a person who holds or has held such an office or contract—

- (a) wilfully communicates the code or password, sketch, plan, model, article, note, document or information to any person other than a person to whom he is authorised to communicate it, or a Court of Justice or a person to whom it is, in the interests of the State, his duty to communicate it ; or
- (b) uses the information in his possession for the benefit of any foreign power or in any other manner prejudicial to the safety of the State ; or
- (c) retains the sketch, plan, model, article, note or document in his possession or control when he has no right to retain it, or when it is contrary to his duty to retain it, or wilfully fails to comply with all directions issued by lawful authority with regard to the return or disposal thereof ;

¹Subs. by the Central Laws (Statute Reform) Ordinance, 1960 (21 of 1960), s. 3 and 2nd Sch. (with effect from the 14th October, 1955), for “the Provinces and the Capital of the Federation” which had been subs. by A.O. 1949, for “British India”.

²Subs. by A.O., 1961, Art. 2, for “His Majesty” (with effect from the 23rd March, 1956).

- (d) fails to take reasonable care of, or so conducts himself as to endanger the safety of, the sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, secret official code or password or information ;

he shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

(2) If any person voluntarily receives any secret official code or password or any sketch, plan, model, article, note, document or information knowing or having reasonable ground to believe, at the time when he receives it, that the code, password, sketch, plan, model, article, note, document or information is communicated in contravention of this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

- (a) where the offence committed is a contravention of clause (a) of sub-section (1) and intended or calculated to be, directly or indirectly, in the interest or for the benefit of a foreign power, or is in relation to any work of defence, arsenal, naval, military or air force establishment or station, mine, mine-field, factory, dockyard, camp, ship or aircraft or otherwise in relation to the naval, military or air force affairs of Pakistan or in relation to any secret official code, ²[with death, or] with imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years ; and
- (b) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.]

6. Unauthorized use of uniforms; falsification of reports, forgery, personation, and false documents. —(1) If any person for the purpose of gaining admission or of assisting any other person to gain admission to a prohibited place or for any other purpose prejudicial to the safety of the State—

- (a) uses or wears, without lawful authority, any naval, military, air force, police or other official uniform, or any uniform so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, or falsely represents himself to be a person who is or has been entitled to use or wear any such uniform ; or
- (b) orally, or in writing in any declaration or application, or in any document signed by him or on his behalf, knowingly makes or connives at the making of any false statement or any omission ; or
- (c) forges, alters, or tampers with any passport or any naval, military, airforce, police, or official pass, permit, certificate, licence, or other document of a similar character (hereinafter in this section referred to as an official document) or knowingly uses or has in his possession any such forged, altered, or irregular official document ; or
- (d) personates, or falsely represents himself to be, a person holding, or in the employment of a person holding office under ³[Government], or to be or not to be a person to whom an official document or secret official code or password has been duly issued or communicated, or with intent to obtain an official document, secret official code or password, whether for himself or any other person, knowingly makes any false statement ; or ¹Subs. by the Official Secrets (Amdt.) Act, 1966 (8 of 1966), s. 4. for subsection (3) and (4).

²Ins. by the Official Secrets (Amdt.) Act, 1968 (8 of 1968), s. 3.

³Subs. by A.O., 1961, Art, 2, for "His Majesty" (with effect from the 3rd March, 1956).

- (e) uses, or has in his possession or under his control, without the authority of the department of the Government or the authority concerned, any die, seal or stamp of or belonging to, or used, made or provided by, any department of the Government, or by any diplomatic, naval, military or air force authority appointed by or acting under the authority of ¹[Government], or any die, seal or stamp so nearly resembling any such die, seal or stamp as to be calculated to deceive, or counterfeits any such die, seal or stamp, or knowingly uses, or has in his possession or under his control, any such counterfeited die, seal or stamp,

he shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

(2) If any person for any purpose prejudicial to the safety of the State —

- (a) retains any official document, whether or not completed or issued for use, when he has no right to retain it, or when it is contrary to his duty to retain it, or wilfully fails to comply with any directions issued by any department of the Government or any person authorised by such department with regard to the return or disposal thereof ; or
- (b) allows any other person to have possession of any official document issued for his use alone, or communicates any secret official code or password so issued, or, without, lawful authority or excuse, has in his possession any official document or secret official code or password issued for the use of some person other than himself, or, on obtaining possession of any official document by finding or otherwise, wilfully fails to restore it to the person or authority by whom or for whose use it was issued, or to a police officer ; or
- (c) without lawful authority or excuse, manufactures or sells, or has in his possession for sale, any such die, seal or stamp as aforesaid ;

he shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

(4) The provisions of sub-section (2) of section 3 shall apply, for the purpose of proving a purpose prejudicial to the safety of the State, to any prosecution for an offence under this section relating to the naval, military or air force affairs of ¹[Government], or to any secret official code in like manner as they apply, for the purpose of proving a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, to prosecutions for offences punishable under that section with imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years.

7. Interfering with officers of the Police or members of the armed forces of Pakistan.—(1) No person in the vicinity of any prohibited place shall obstruct, knowingly mislead or otherwise interfere with or impede, any police officer, or any member of ²[the armed forces of Pakistan] engaged on guard, sentry, patrol, or other similar duty in relation to the prohibited place.

(2) If any person acts in contravention of the provisions of this section, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

¹Subs. by A.O., 1961, Art. 2, for "His Majesty" (with effect from the 23rd March, 1956).

²Subs. ibid., Art. 2 and Sch., for "His Majesty's forces" (with effect from the 23rd March, 1956).

8. Duty of giving information as to commission of offences.—(1) It shall be the duty of every person to give on demand to a Superintendent of Police, or other police officer not below the rank of Inspector, empowered by an Inspector-General ¹[* * *] in this behalf, or to any member of ²[the armed forces of Pakistan] engaged on guard, sentry, patrol or other similar duty, any information in his power relating to an offence or suspected offence under section 3 or under section 3 read with section 9 and, if so required, and upon tender of his reasonable expenses, to attend at such reasonable time and place as may be specified for the purpose of furnishing such information.

(2) If any person fails to give any such information or to attend as aforesaid, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

9. Attempts, incitements, etc.— Any person who attempts to commit or abets the commission of an offence under this Act shall be punishable with the same punishment, and be liable to be proceeded against in the same manner as if he had committed such offence.

10. Penalty for harbouring spies.—(1) If any person knowingly harbours any person whom he knows or has reasonable grounds for supposing to be a person who is about to commit or who has committed an offence under section 3 or under section 3 read with section 9 or knowingly permits to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control any such persons, he shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

(2) It shall be the duty of every person having harboured any such person as aforesaid or permitted to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control any such persons as aforesaid, to give on demand to a Superintendent of Police or other police officer not below the rank of Inspector empowered by an Inspector-General ¹[* * *] in this behalf, any information in his power relating to any such person or persons, and if any person fails to give any such information, he shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

11. Search Warrants.—(1) If a ³[* * ], Magistrate of the first class ⁴[ * *] is satisfied, by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed, he may grant a search-warrant authorising any police officer named therein, not being below the rank of an officer in charge of a police station, to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary, by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein, and to seize any sketch, plan, model, article, note or document, or anything of a like nature, or anything which is evidence of an offence under this Act having been or being about to be committed which he may find on the premises or place or any such person, and with regard to or in connection with which he has reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed.

(2) Where it appears to a police officer, not being below the rank of Superintendent, that the case is one of great emergency, and that in the interests of the State immediate action is necessary, he may by a written order under his hand give to any police officer the like authority as may be given by the warrant of a Magistrate under this section.

¹The words “or Commissioner of Police” omitted by A.O., 1949.

²Subs. by A.O., 1961, Art. 2 and Sch. for “His Majesty’s forces” (with effect from the 23rd March, 1956).

³The words “Presidency Magistrate” omitted by A.O., 1949.

⁴Omitted by Ord. 68 of 2002, s. 3 (see sub-section (2) of section 1 for application in ICT).

(3) Where action has been taken by a police officer under sub-section (2) he shall, as soon as may be, report such action, ¹[* * *] to the ²[Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction].

12. Power to arrest. — Notwithstanding anything in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898),—

⁵[(c) any member of the armed forces of Pakistan may, without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest, in or in the vicinity of a prohibited place, any person who has been concerned in an offence under section 3, or under section 3 read with section 9, or under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 5, or under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 6, or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received, or a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been so concerned, and shall without unnecessary delay take or send the person arrested before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case or before an officer in charge of a police-station, and thereupon the provisions of the said Code applicable in respect of a person who, having been arrested without warrant, has been taken or sent before a Magistrate or before an officer in charge of a police-station shall apply to him.]

13. Restriction on trial of offences. —⁶[(1) No Court ²[inferior to] that of a Magistrate of the first class specially empowered in this behalf by the appropriate Government shall try any offence under this Act.]

(2) If any person under trial before a Magistrate for an offence under this Act at any time before a charge is framed claims to be tried by the Court of Session, the Magistrate shall, if he does not discharge the accused, commit the case for trial by that Court, notwithstanding that it is not a case exclusively triable by that Court.

(3) No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act unless upon complaint made by order of, or under authority from, the ⁷[appropriate Government] ⁸[* * *] or some officer empowered by the ⁷[appropriate Government] in this behalf:

Provided that a person charged with such an offence may be arrested, or a warrant for his arrest may be issued and executed, and any such person may be remanded in custody or on bail, notwithstanding that such complaint has not been made, but no further or other proceedings shall be taken until such complaint has been made.
