SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR THE APPLICATION OF THIS ORDINANCE IN CERTAIN CASES:

5. Application of this Ordinance to certain forces under the Federal Government. The ²[Federal Government] may, by notification, apply with or without modification all or any of the provisions of this Ordinance to any force raised and maintained in Pakistan and suspend operation of any other enactment for the time being applicable to the said force.

6. Special provision as to rank and command in certain cases. Any person or class of persons subject to this Ordinance under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 2—

(1) shall be so subject as officers, chief petty officers or petty officer as the ¹[Federal Government] or any officer authorised by it in that behalf may direct ;

(2) in respect of whom no direction under clause (1) is in force, shall be deemed to be of a rate inferior to that of a petty officer ;

(3) shall be deemed to be under the command of the naval ship, naval vessel or naval establishment, if any, to which he is attached, and if he is not so attached, under the command of any officer who may, for the time being, be named as his commanding officer by the officer commanding the force with which such person may be serving, or of any other prescribed officer, and if no such officer is named or prescribed, under the command of the said officer commanding the force ;

(4) shall not be placed under the command of an officer of official rank inferior to that of such person if there is present at the place where such person is any officer of higher rank under whose command he can be placed.

7. Officers exercising powers in certain cases.— (1) Whenever persons subject to this Ordinance are serving whether within or without Pakistan, under an officer not subject to this Ordinance, the ²[Federal Government] may prescribe the officer by whom the powers which, under this Ordinance, may be exercised by a commanding officer, shall as regards such persons, be exercised.

(2) The ²[Federal Government] may confer such powers either absolutely or subject to such restrictions, reservations, exceptions and conditions as it may think fit.

²Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for “Central Government”.

8. Exercise of powers vested in holder of naval office. Any power or jurisdiction given to, and any act or thing to be done by, to, or before any person holding any naval appointment may be exercised by, to or done by, to or before any other person for the time being authorised in that behalf according to rules or customs of the navy.

9. Power to declare persons to be on active service. Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (i) of section 4, the ¹[Federal Government] may, by notification, declare that any person or class of persons subject to this Ordinance, shall, with reference to any area in which they may be serving or with reference to any provision of this Ordinance or of any other law for the time being in force, be deemed to be on active service within the meaning of this Ordinance.

CHAPTER III.— APPOINTMENT, COMMISSION AND ENROLMENT.

10. Eligibility for employment. No person who is not a citizen of Pakistan shall except with the consent of the ¹[Federal Government] signified in writing, be eligible for appointment or enrolment in the Pakistan Navy.

11. Appointment and commission.—(1) Officers other than subordinate officers shall be appointed by commission by the President.

(2) Subordinate officers shall be appointed in such manner and shall hold such rank as may be specified in the regulations.

- (b) to attend or address any meeting or to take part in any demonstration organised by any body of persons for any political or other purposes ;
- (c) to communicate with the press or to publish or cause to be published any book, letter or other document.

CHAPTER V.— SERVICE PRIVILEGES

22. Authorised deductions only to be made from pay. The pay and allowances of every officer ¹[, chief petty officer and sailor] due to him as such under any regulation for the time being in force, shall be paid without any deduction other than the deductions authorised by or under this or any other enactment or prescribed by the ²[Federal Government].

23. Remedy of aggrieved persons. If an officer ³[, chief petty officer or sailor] thinks that he has suffered any personal oppression, injustice or other ill-treatment at the hands of any superior officer, he may make a complaint in accordance with the rules made under this Ordinance.

24. Immunity from attachment. The arms, clothes, equipment, accoutrement or necessaries of any officer ³[, chief petty officer or sailor] shall not be seized, and their pay and allowances, or any part thereof, shall not be attached under any process or direction of any civil or revenue Court or any public servant, in satisfaction of any decree or order enforceable against him.

25. Immunity from arrest for debt.—(1) No officer ³[, chief petty officer or sailor] shall, so long as he is subject to this Ordinance, be liable to be arrested for debt under any process issued by, or by the authority of, any civil or revenue Court or any public servant.

(2) The Judge of any such Court or the said officer shall examine into any complaint made by such person or his superior officer of the arrest of such person contrary to the provisions of this section, and if satisfied that the arrest was made in contravention of preceding sub-section shall by warrant under his hand, discharge the person arrested, and may award reasonable costs to the complainant who may recover these costs in like manner as he might have recovered costs awarded to him by a decree against the person obtaining the process.

(3) For the making of such complaint and for the recovery of such costs, no court-fee shall be payable by the complainant.

26. Immunity of persons attending courts-martial ⁴[or court of appeals] from arrest.—(1) No president or member of a court-martial ⁴[or court of appeals], no Judge advocate, no party to any proceeding before a court-martial ⁴[or court of appeals], or his legal practitioner or agent and no witness acting in obedience to a summons to attend a court-martial ⁴[or court of appeals], shall, while proceeding to attending, or returning from a Court-martial, be liable to arrest by civil or revenue process.

(2) If any such person is arrested under any such process, he may be discharged by order of the court-martial ¹[or, as the case may be, court of appeals].

27. Priority in respect of naval personnel's litigation.—(1) On the presentation to any Court, by or on behalf of any officer ²[chief petty officer or sailor], of a certificate, from the proper naval authority, of leave of absence having been granted to or applied for by him for the purpose of prosecuting or defending any suit or other proceeding in such Court, the Court shall, on the application of such person, arrange, so far as may be possible, for the hearing and final disposal of such suit or other proceeding within the period of the leave so granted or applied for.

(2) The certificate from the proper naval authority shall state the first and last day of the leave or intended leave, and set forth a description of the case with respect to which the leave was granted or applied for and shall be duly signed and authenticated by such authority.

(3) No fee shall be payable to the Court in respect of the presentation of any such certificate or of any application by or on behalf of any such person for priority for the hearing of his case, and every such certificate duly signed or authenticated as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the contents thereof.

(4) Where the Court is unable to arrange for the hearing and final disposal of the suit or other proceeding within the period of such leave or intended leave as aforesaid, it shall record its reasons for its inability to do so, and shall cause a copy thereof to be furnished to such person on his application without any payment whatever by him in respect either of the application for such copy or of the copy itself.

(5) Every criminal Court before which a case is pending against any officer or rating shall, so far as may be possible, arrange for the early hearing and final disposal of such case.

(6) If in any case a question arises as to the proper naval authority qualified to grant such certificate as aforesaid, such question shall be at once referred by the Court to an officer, commanding a naval ship or establishment, or to a superior naval authority, whose decision shall be final.

28. Saving of rights and privileges under other laws. The rights and privileges specified in the preceding sections of this Chapter shall be in addition to any others conferred on persons subject to this Ordinance or on members of the regular Army, Navy and Air Force generally by any other law for the time being in force.

³Ins. by Ord. 55 of 1980 s. 14.

(6) The punishment of forfeiture of seniority shall involve the loss of the benefit of service included in the seniority forfeited for the purposes of pension, gratuity, promotion and such other purposes as may be prescribed, provided that such pension, gratuity and promotion and other purposes depend upon such service.

(7) The punishment of forfeiture of time for promotion shall delay the promotion by the time specified.

Provided that, on such promotion or re-advancement, he shall be entitled to the benefit of the service rendered by him in the former rank or rate prior to his reduction or disrating.]

(9) Penal deductions mean deductions as specified hereinafter in this Ordinance and may accompany a sentence of imprisonment.

(10) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance a naval tribunal may, on conviction, award either the punishment specified by this Ordinance as the penalty for an offence, or in lieu thereof, any one or more of the punishments inferior in degree to the specified punishment, according to the scale of punishments laid down in sub-section (1) of section 80.

CHAPTER VIII—PENAL DEDUCTIONS

82. Deductions from pay and allowances of officers and ³[, chief petty officers and sailors]. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter the following deductions may be made from the pay and allowances of an officer ⁴[chief petty officers or sailors] without recourse to trial by a naval tribunal, namely :—

- (a) all pay and allowances for every day of absence without leave unless a satisfactory explanation is given to the commanding officer and approved, in case of officers, by the ⁵[Chief of the Naval Staff] ;
- (b) all pay and allowances, for every day while he is in civil or naval custody or under suspension from duty on a charge for an offence of which he is afterwards convicted by a naval tribunal or a criminal Court and sentenced to imprisonment ;

¹Subs. by Ord. ss, of 1980, s.14 sub section (8)

²Ins. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1980 (55 of 1980), s. 14.

³Subs. ibids 15, for “and ratings”.

⁴Subs. ibid., for “or rating”.

⁵Subs. by F.A.O., 1975., Art. 2 and Sch., for “Commander-in-chief”.

- (c) all pay and allowances for every day while he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the prescribed medical officer to have been caused by an act amounting to an offence punishable under this Ordinance:

Provided that such certificate is accepted by the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff] or, in case of a ²[chief petty officer or sailor], by the prescribed officer ;

- (d) any sum required to make good any loss, damage or destruction of Government or service property which after due investigation appears to the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff] or the prescribed officer to have been occasioned by the wrongful act or negligence on the part of the officer ²[,chief petty officer or sailor] as the case may be;

Provided that the total deductions made under this clause shall not in any case exceed his pay and allowances for three months ;

- (e) any sum which after due investigation appears to the prescribed officer to be due to a service mess or canteen ; and
- (f) any sum which a criminal Court or the ³[Federal Government] ⁴[or the Chief of the Naval Staff] orders him to pay for the maintenance of his wife or legitimate or illegitimate children.

83. Limit of certain deductions. Except when the deductions are made under clauses (a) and (b) of the last preceding section, the total deductions from the pay and allowances of an officer ²[,chief petty officer or sailor] shall not exceed in any one month, one-half of his pay and allowances for that month.

84. Pay and allowances during trial. In the case of any person subject to this Ordinance who is in naval or civil custody on a charge for an offence, the prescribed officer may direct that the whole or any part of the pay and allowances of such person shall be withheld, pending the result of his trial on the charge against him:

Provided that no part of the pay and allowances shall be withheld in the absence of any such direction.

85. Deduction from money due to person. Any sum authorised by this Ordinance to be deducted from the pay and allowances of any person may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovering the same, be deducted from any money due to him from Government other than a pension.

86. Pay and allowances of prisoner of war during inquiry into his conduct.-Where the conduct of any person subject to this Ordinance when being taken prisoner by, or while in the hands of, the enemy, is to be inquired into under this Ordinance or any other law, the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff] or any officer authorised by him may order that the whole or any part of the pay and allowances of such person shall be withheld pending the result of such inquiry.

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Sch, for "Commander-in-Chief.

²Ins. by Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance 1980 (55 of 1980), s. 15. for "rating".

³Subs. by F.A.O., 1975,". Art. 2 and Table, for "Central Government".

⁴Ins. by Ord. 55 of 1980 s. 15.

87. Remission of deductions.—(1) Any deductions from the pay and allowances authorised by or under this Ordinance may be remitted by the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff], in his discretion.

(2) Such deductions may also be remitted in such manner and to such extent and by such authority as may be prescribed.

88. Provision for dependants of prisoner of war from his pay and allowances.—(1) It shall be lawful for proper provision to be made by the prescribed authorities for any dependants of any person subject to this Ordinance, who is a prisoner of war or is missing out of his pay and allowances.

(2) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be deemed to continue to be a prisoner of war until the conclusion of any inquiry into his conduct such as is referred to in section 86, and if he is dismissed from the service in consequences of such conduct, until the date of such dismissal.

CHAPTER IX.—ARREST AND PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRIAL.

89. Duty to bring offenders to justice and powers of arrest.—(1) It shall be the duty of every person subject this Ordinance who knows or has reasonable grounds for suspecting that another person subject thereto is committing or has committed an offence under this Ordinance to take all reasonable steps within his power to cause that person to be brought to justice.

(2) The following persons shall have power to arrest a person subject to this Ordinance who is found committing or is alleged to have committed or is reasonably suspected of having committed any such offence as aforesaid, that is to say:—

- (a) In case of an officer, an officer subject to this Ordinance who is his superior officer, or, if the person to be arrested is engaged in a quarrel, affray or disorder, any officer subject to this Ordinance;
- (b) in the case of a ²[chief petty officer or sailor], an officer subject to this Ordinance, a chief petty officer, petty officer or a leading ³[rate] subject to this Ordinance who is of superior rate or senior to him in the same rate, and any ¹[chief petty officer or sailor] exercising the authority as a member of the regulating staff or as a, member of the staff of the officer of the watch ;
- (c) in any case, a provost officer or any officer or person legally exercising authority under or on behalf of a provost officer:

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Sch, for “Commander-in-Chief”.

²Subs. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1980 (55 of 1980), s. 17, for “rating”.

³Subs. ibid., for “rating”.

Provided that an officer shall not be arrested by virtue of clause (c) except on the order of another officer.

(3) Any power of arrest under this section may be exercised either personally or by ordering into arrest the person to be arrested or by giving orders of that person's arrest.

90. Provision for avoiding delay after arrest.—(1) Where any person subject to this Ordinance is placed under arrest, it shall be the duty of his commanding officer to ensure that as soon as may be either the proceedings are taken for his trial or he is released from arrest.

(2) Every person subject to this Ordinance who has been taken into naval custody and kept under close arrest shall be produced before his commanding officer within a period of 48 hours of such arrest, excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the commanding officer, and no such person shall be detained in custody beyond the said period without authority of the commanding officer.

(3) Whenever any person subject to this Ordinance having been taken into naval custody, remains, under close arrest for a period longer than eight days without being tried summarily or a Court for his trial being ordered to assemble, a special report on the necessity for further delay shall be made by his commanding officer to the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff] and a similar report shall be so made every eight days until the person under arrest is released from arrest or tried summarily or such a Court is ordered to assemble.

91. Duty to receive or keep in custody.— (1) The commanding officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of every person who is in naval custody on board his ship or in his establishment.

(2) The officer ²[, chief petty officer or sailor] in charge of a guard, or a provost-marshal shall receive and keep any person who is duly committed to his custody.

92. Procedure before trial. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance the procedure before trial and the manner of investigation shall be as prescribed.

93. Arrest under warrants of naval authorities.—(1) A warrant for the arrest of a person suspected of any offence under this Ordinance may be issued in the prescribed form by the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff], his commanding officer or any other officer empowered by the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff] in this behalf, and it shall be executed as if it has been issued by a Magistrate of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Every person, to whom such a warrant is issued, shall take steps to execute the warrant and arrest the offender and shall, as soon as may be, arrest the person and deliver him into naval custody.

(3) A person authorised to arrest an offender may use such force as may be necessary for the purpose of affecting such arrest.

94. Provost-Marshals.—(1) Provost-marshals may be appointed by the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff], or by any prescribed officer.

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Sch, for "Commander-in-Chief".

²Subs. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1980 (55 of 1980), s. 18, for " or rating".

(2) The duties of a Provost-marshal are to take charge of persons confined for any offence, to preserve good order and discipline, and to prevent breaches of the same by persons serving in, or attached to the Navy.

(3) A Provost-marshal may at any time arrest and detain for trial any person subject to this Ordinance who commits, or is charged with, an offence, and may also carry into effect any punishment to be inflicted in pursuance of the sentence awarded by a naval tribunal but shall not inflict any punishment on his own authority:

Provided that no officer shall be so arrested or detained otherwise than on the order of another officer.

Explanation.— For the purposes of sub-sections (2) and (3), a “Provost-marshal” shall be deemed to include a Provost-marshal appointed under the Pakistan Army Act, 1952 (XXXI of 1952), or the Pakistan Air Force Act, 1953 (VI of 1953), and any person legally exercising authority under him or on his behalf.

CHAPTER X.—AUTHORITIES HAVING POWER TO AWARD PUNISHMENT

95. Naval tribunal.—(1) An offence triable under this Ordinance shall be tried by a naval tribunal, namely :—

- (a) general court-martial,
- (b) district court-martial,
- (c) summary general court-martial,
- (d) commanding officer, or such other officer or authority exercising powers of summary trial and punishment as may be prescribed.

(2) A trial by a naval tribunal under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), and the naval tribunal shall be deemed to be a Court within the meaning of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

96. General court-martial.—(1) A general court-martial may be convened by the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff] or any prescribed officer empowered in this behalf and to such extent as may be specified in the warrant issued under the hand of the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff].

(2) A general court-martial shall have an officer not below the substantive rank of commander as president and shall have power to try any person subject to this Ordinance for any offence punishable therein and to pass any sentence authorised thereby.

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Sch. for “Commander-in-Chief”.

97. District court-martial.—(1) A district court-martial may be convened by any authority having power to convene a general court-martial or any prescribed officer empowered in this behalf and to such extent as may be specified in the warrant issued under the hand of the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff].

(2) A district court-martial shall have an officer not below the substantive rank of lieutenant commander as president and shall have power to try any person subject to this Ordinance, who is of the rank of lieutenant or below or a ²[chief petty officer or sailor], and to pass any sentence authorised by this Ordinance not exceeding, —

- (a) in the case of an officer, forfeiture of seniority in rank or forfeiture of time for promotion for a period of one year; and
- (b) in the case of a ²[chief petty officer or sailor], short imprisonment.

98. Summary general court-martial.—(1) A summary general court-martial may be convened—

- (a) by any authority having power to convene a general court-martial or any prescribed officer empowered in this behalf and to such extent as may be specified in the warrant issued under the hand of the ¹[Chief of the Naval Staff].
- (b) on active service, by an officer commanding a flotilla or squadron not below the substantive rank of commander, if in the opinion in writing of such officer commanding which opinion shall be final, it is not practicable, having regard to discipline and the exigencies of the service, to try the alleged offender by a general or district court-martial.

(2) A summary general court-martial shall have an officer not below the substantive rank of a lieutenant commander as president and shall have power to try any person subject to this Ordinance for any offence punishable therein and to pass any sentence authorised thereby.

99. Composition of courts-martial.—(1) A court-martial shall consist of such number of officers of any branch of the Pakistan Navy, who have held commissions for a period of not less than three years and who are of or above the rank of lieutenant as the authority ordering the court-martial may fix, subject to the following limits, namely : —

- (a) a general court-martial shall consist of not less than five and not more than nine such officers;
- (b) a district court-martial shall consist of not less than three and not more than seven such officers; and

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art.2 and Sch. for “Commander-in-Chief”.

²Subs. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1980 (55 of 1980), s. 19, for “rating”.

- (c) a summary general court-martial shall consist of not less than three and not more than five such officers.

(2) The president and other members of a court-martial, and such spare members as the authority ordering the court-martial considers appropriate for the purpose of filling vacancies, shall be nominated by that authority.

(3) The officer who orders a court-martial shall not be a member of the court-martial; and no court-martial shall consist of officers all of whom belong to the same ship or naval establishment.

(4) A court-martial for the trial of an officer shall not include more than one member, who is below the rank of such officer.

[99A. Members of court-martial and presiding officer of court of appeals to be Muslims. In the trial of a person subject to this Ordinance, who is a Muslim, by a court-martial for an offence punishable under an Islamic law, the president, the judge advocate and the members, including the spare members, of the court-martial, the confirming officer and the presiding officer of the court of appeals shall all be Muslims.]

100. Judge Advocate.—(1) Every general court-martial shall, and every district or summary general court-martial may, be attended by a judge advocate, who shall be either an officer belonging to the department of the judge advocate General, or if no such officer is available, a fit person appointed by the convening officer.

(2) No general court-martial, and no district or summary general court-martial to which a judge advocate has been appointed shall proceed with the trial in the absence of the judge advocate.

101. Quorum and dissolution of courts-martial.—(1) If at any time after a court-martial has been sworn and before the president has signed the finding and sentence, if any, the president or the judge advocate dies or is otherwise unable to attend, the court shall be dissolved.

(2) The proceedings of a court-martial shall be valid notwithstanding the absence of one or more of the members other than the president, so long as the number of members present throughout the proceedings is not reduced below the minimum required by this Ordinance to constitute the court; otherwise the court shall be dissolved.

(3) Where any member is absent the court shall be adjourned, unless it is allowed to proceed without such member by the convening authority, in which case such member shall not at any subsequent stage sit on that court.

(4) The officer who convened a court-martial may dissolve such court-martial, if it appears to him that the exigencies of the service or the necessities or discipline render it impossible or inexpedient to continue the trial.

¹Ins. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1984 (37 of 1984), s. 13.

(5) Where a court-martial is dissolved under this section the accused may be tried by a court-martial constituted afresh.

102. Powers of commanding officers in respect of summary trial.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a ¹[Chief petty officer or sailor] may be summarily tried by the officer in command of the naval ship or naval establishment to which the offender belongs either at the time of the commission of the offence or at the time of the trial, and may be awarded such punishment as may be prescribed.

(2) This section applies to every offence under this Ordinance other than an offence punishable with death ²[or with hadd under any Islamic law]. .

(3) A commanding officer shall not have power under this section to award a sentence of imprisonment or detention for any term exceeding three months.

(4) The power conferred by sub-section (1) on the officer in command of a ship or establishment may, subject to rules be exercised, —

- (a) in respect of persons on board a single tender or boat which is absent from the ship or establishment on detached service, by the officer in command of that tender or boat;
- (b) in respect of persons on board any one of two or more tenders or boats which are absent as aforesaid on detached service in company or acting together, by the officer in immediate command of those tenders or boats;
- (c) in respect of other persons absent from the ship or establishment on detached service either on shore or elsewhere, by the officer in immediate command of those persons; and
- (d) in respect of ¹[chief petty officers or sailors] attached to or serving with any body of the regular army or the air force under prescribed conditions, by the commanding officer of any such body.

(5) The power conferred on any officer by sub-section (1) or sub-section (4) may be delegated by that officer to any other officer to such extent and subject, to such conditions as may be prescribed.

103. Powers of other authorities in respect of summary trial. The ³[Chief of the Naval Staff] or any prescribed officer empowered by him in the behalf may in the prescribed manner and to such extent as may be specified by the ³[Chief of the Naval Staff], summarily try an officer of the rank of lieutenant or below charged with an offence under this Ordinance and award any punishment authorised by this Ordinance not exceeding forfeiture of seniority in rank or forfeiture of time for promotion for period of six months.

104. Place of trial. Any person subject to this Ordinance and charged with an offence under this Ordinance may be tried and punished at any place whatsoever.

105. Period of limitation for trial.—(1) Save as provided in subsection (2), no trial by naval tribunal of any person subject to this Ordinance for any offence shall be commenced after the expiration of period of three years from the date of the commission of such offence.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to a trial for an offence of desertion or fraudulent enrolment or for any of the offences relating to mutiny ¹[or espionage] ²[or for any of those mentioned in section 63].

(3) In computing the period of time mentioned in sub-section (1), any time spent by such person as a prisoner of war, or in any enemy territory, or in evading arrest after the alleged commission of the offence, shall be excluded.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no trial for an offence of desertion (other than desertion on active service) or of fraudulent enrolment shall be commenced, if the person concerned (not being an officer) has, subsequently to the alleged commission of the offence, served continuously in an exemplary manner for not less than three years with any portion of the armed forces.

106. Liability of offender who ceases to be subject to this Ordinance.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person who has ceased to be subject to this Ordinance may be tried under this Ordinance for any offence committed while subject to this Ordinance and may for that purpose be arrested and kept in naval custody as if he had not ceased to be subject thereto.

(2) Save as provided in sub-section (3), no such person as aforesaid shall be tried for an offence, unless his trial commences within six months of his ceasing to be subject to this Ordinance.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall not apply to the trial of any such person as aforesaid for an offence of desertion or fraudulent enrolment or for any of the offences relating to mutiny ¹[or espionage] ²[or for any of those mentioned in section 63].

(4) Nothing contained in sub-section (2) shall affect the jurisdiction of a criminal Court to try any offence triable by such Court.

(5) When a person subject to this Ordinance is sentenced by a naval tribunal to imprisonment, this Ordinance shall apply to him during the term of his sentence, though he is dismissed from the service or has otherwise ceased to be subject to this Ordinance, and he may be kept, removed, imprisoned and punished as if he has continued to be subject to the Ordinance.

(6) When a person subject to this Ordinance is sentenced by a naval tribunal to death, this Ordinance shall apply to him till the sentence is carried out.

¹Added by Ordinance, 55 of 1980, ss. 21 and 22.

²Added by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1984 (37 of 1984) ss.15 and 16.

107. Concurrent jurisdiction of naval tribunal and criminal Court.—(1) When a Criminal Court and naval tribunal both have jurisdiction in respect of a civil offence, it shall be in the discretion of the prescribed naval authority to decide whether the proceedings shall be instituted before the Court or tribunal and if that authority decides that they shall be instituted before a naval tribunal, to direct that the accused person shall be detained in naval custody.

(2) Where it is decided to institute the proceedings before a naval tribunal under sub-section (1) but the criminal Court is of the opinion that proceedings ought to be instituted before itself, it may be written notice require than prescribed naval authority to postpone the proceedings pending the determination of the matter by the ¹[Federal Government], and thereupon the proceedings shall be so postponed.

(3) On receiving a notice under sub-section (2), the said authority shall, unless upon reconsideration it agrees that the proceedings shall be instituted before the criminal court, forthwith refer the matter to the ¹[Federal Government] whose decision thereupon shall be final.

108. Prohibition of second trial.—(1) Where a person subject to this Ordinance is acquitted or convicted of an offence ²[by a court of appeals or] on trial by a naval tribunal, a criminal Court or a naval tribunal shall be debarred from trying him subsequently for the same offence ³[save as provided for in this Ordinance].

(2) Where a person subject to this Ordinance is acquitted or convicted of any offence on trial by a criminal Court, he shall not subsequently be tried under this Ordinance for the same offence ; and no person so convicted shall, by reason of such conviction, be subjected to any loss of forfeiture of seniority or of rate, of privilege in respect of leave, or of pay or service (other than pay and service in respect of time spent in civil custody pending trial, or while attending his trial, or while serving any sentence of imprisonment, awarded by the criminal court) :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the power to discharge any person from the naval service as a person whose services are no longer required.

CHAPTER XI.-PROCEDURE OF COURTS-MARTIAL

109. Objections.—(1) At all trials by courts-martial, as soon as this court is assembled, the names of the president and members shall be read over in the presence of the accused, who shall thereupon be asked whether he objects to being tried by any officer sitting on the court.

(2) If the accused objects to any such officer, his objection, and also the reply thereto of the officer objected to, shall be heard and recorded, and the remaining officers appointed as members of the Court shall, in the absence of the challenged officer, decide on the objection.

(3) If objection is made in respect of the president, and allowed by one-half or more of the officers entitled to vote, the Court shall adjourn until a new president is appointed by the convening authority.

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art.2 and Table, for "Central Government".

²Ins. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1984 (37 of 1984), s. 17.

³Added ibid.

(4) If the objection is made in respect of any member of the Court other than the president and allowed as specified above, the member objected to shall retire, and his vacancy shall be filled by the first officer nominated as a spare member; under sub-section (2) of section 99 who is qualified to be and is not already a member of the Court.

(5) When no objection is made, or objection made has been disallowed, or the place of every officer successfully objected to has been filled by another officer to whom no objection is made or objection made is disallowed, the Court shall proceed with the, trial.

110. Administration of oath.—(1) An oath or affirmation in the prescribed form shall be administered in open court to every member of every court-martial and to the judge advocate, if any, before the commencement of the trial.

(2) An oath or affirmation in the prescribed form shall be administered in open court to every officer, if any, in attendance on a court-martial for the purpose of instruction, and also to every short-hand writer or interpreter if any.

(3) Every person giving evidence before a court-martial shall be examined after being duly sworn or affirmed in the prescribed form:

Provided that where a court-martial is satisfied that a child of tender years is unable to understand the nature of an oath or affirmation, it may dispense with the administration of oath or affirmation.

111. Voting by members.—(1) Every decision of a court-martial shall be passed by an absolute majority of votes; and where there is an equality of votes on either the finding or the sentence, the decision shall be in favor of the accused:

Provided that no sentence of death shall be passed without the concurrence, in the case of a general court-martial of at least two-thirds of the members, and in the case of a summary general court-martial of all the members of the Court ¹[;]

²[Provided further that, where the offence of which an accused is found guilty is an offence liable to hadd under an Islamic law, the sentence awarded shall be that provided for the offence in that law.]

(2) In matters other than an objection under section 109 or a finding or a sentence, the president shall have a second or casting vote.

112. Power to convict of mitigated offence. Where higher punishment for any offence under this Ordinance depends upon the intent with which or the circumstances in which the offender acts, and any person is charged with committing that offence with such intent or in such circumstances, he may be found guilty of committing that offence without such intent or circumstances and awarded lower punishment.

113. Power to convict of alternative offence.—(I) Where a person is charged with an offence under any provision of this Ordinance other than sections 78 and 79 but the offence is not proved, he may be found guilty of-

¹Subs. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1984 (37 of 1984), s. 18, for full-stop.

²Proviso added ibid.

- (a) an attempt or abetment to commit the offence charged; or
- (b) an offence of the same class as the offence charged and not involving greater punishment.

(2) Where a person is charged with a civil offence under sections 78 and 79 but that offence is not proved, he may be found guilty and convicted of any other civil offence of which he could be found guilty and convicted by a criminal Court in a trial for the same offence as he is charged with.

114. General rules as to evidence. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the rules of evidence generally followed in criminal Courts shall apply to proceedings before a court-martial.

115. Judicial notice. A court-martial shall take judicial notice of any matter generally within the knowledge of its members as officers of the Navy.

116. Summoning of witnesses.—(1) The convening officer, the president of the court, the judge advocate, ¹[the President of the board of inquiry,] or the commanding officer of the accused person may, by summons under his hand, require the attendance, at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons, of any person either to give evidence or to produce any document or thing.

(2) In the case of a witness subject to service law the summons shall be sent to his commanding officer and such officer shall serve it upon him accordingly.

¹[(3) In the case of any other witness, the person issuing summons under sub-section (1) shall have the same powers as a criminal court has under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), to enforce the attendance of any witness and for his examination or production of any document or thing.]

(4) When a witness is required to produce any particular document or thing the summons shall describe it with reasonable precision.

117. Commission for the examination of witnesses.—(1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a court-martial, it appears to the Court that the examination of a witness is necessary for ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, in the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such Court may, if it thinks necessary, issue a commission in the manner specified in Chapter XL of the Code of Criminal procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), according as the witness resides in a place in or outside Pakistan.

(2) The Court may be adjourned for a specified time reasonably sufficient for the execution and return of the commission.

(3) Such a commission shall be executed by the magistrate or officer to whom it is issued in the same manner as if it was issued in the trial of a warrant case under the Code of Criminal

¹Ins. subs. by Ord. LXII of 2000, s. 4.

Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), or of any corresponding law in force at the place where the evidence is recorded ; and shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness examined thereunder to the Judge Advocate-General.

(4) The Judge Advocate-General will forward the same to the court martial who issued it or, if the said court-martial is in the meanwhile, dissolved to another court-martial convened for the trial of the accused in respect of the same charge and any deposition so taken shall be recorded in evidence and shall form part of the proceedings of the Court.

118. Presumption as to signature.—In any proceeding under this Ordinance, any application, certificate, warrant, reply or other document purporting to be signed by an officer in the service of the Government shall, on production, be presumed to have been duly signed by the person by whom and in the character in which it purports to have been signed, until the contrary is shown.

119. Enrolment paper.—(1) Any enrolment paper purporting to be signed by an enrolling officer shall, in any proceedings under this Ordinance, be evidence that the person enrolled gave the answer which he is therein represented to have given.

(2) The enrolment of such person may be proved by the production of the original or a copy of his enrolment paper purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the officer having the custody of the enrolment paper.

120. Presumption as to certain documents.—(1) Where any letter, return or other document with respect to a person,—

- (i) having, or not having, at any time served, in, or been dismissed or discharged from any part of the armed forces of Pakistan;
- (ii) having or not having, held any rank or appointment in, or been posted or transferred to any part of such forces, or having or not having served in any particular country or place; or
- (iii) being, or not being, authorised to use or wear any military, naval or air force decoration, medal, meal ribbon, badge, wound stripe or emblem, the use or wearing of which by an unauthorised person is, by any law for the time being in force an offence, purports to have been signed by or on behalf of a Secretary to the ¹[Federal Government], or by an officer of any of the headquarters of the armed forces or by the commanding officer or the officer having the custody of the records of any portion of those forces or of any ship or establishment of the Pakistan Navy to which such person appears or alleges to belong or to have belonged shall be evidence of the facts stated in such letter, return or other document.

(2) Any army, navy or air force list or gazette purporting to have been published by the competent authority shall be evidence of the status, rank and appointment of the officer or warrant officer and also of the unit or branch of the service to which he belongs according as it is shown in the list or gazette.

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for “Central Government”.

(3) Where a record made in any service book in pursuance of this Ordinance or of any rules made thereunder or otherwise in pursuance of duty purports to have been signed by the commanding officer or by the officer whose duty it is to make such record, such record shall be evidence of the facts therein stated.

(4) A copy of any record in any service book purporting to have been certified as a true copy by the officer having the custody of such book shall be evidence of such record.

(5) Where any person subject to this Ordinance is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave and such person has surrendered himself into the custody of, or has been apprehended by, any officer, or any portion, of the armed forces of Pakistan, a certificate purporting to be signed by such officer, or by the commanding officer of that portion of the armed forces and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension, shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(6) Where any person subject to this Ordinance is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave and such person has on arrest or surrender been taken to a police station in Pakistan, a certificate purporting to have been signed by the officer-in-charge of that police station, and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(7) Any document purporting to be a report under the hand of any Chemical Examiner or Assistant Chemical Examiner to the Government upon any matter or thing duly submitted to him for examination or analysis and report may be used as evidence in any proceeding under this Ordinance.

(8) If it is proved that a person charged with an offence under this Ordinance has absconded and that there is no immediate prospect of arresting him, the commanding officer or other prescribed person may, in his absence, examine any persons who might appear to him to be acquainted with the case and record their depositions on oath and any such deposition may on the arrest of such person be used in evidence against him in any proceeding under this Ordinance, if the deponent is dead or incapable of giving evidence, or his attendance cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which under the circumstances of the case would be unreasonable.

121. Reference by accused to Government officer.—(1) If at any trial, or other proceedings for desertion or absence without leave, the accused states in his defence any sufficient or reasonable excuse for his unauthorised absence, and refers in support thereof to any officer in the service of the Government or if it appears that any such officer is likely to prove or disprove the said statement in the defence, the Court or officer conducting the proceedings shall address such officer and adjourn the Court or proceedings until his reply is received.

(2) The written reply of any officer so addressed shall, if signed by him, be received in evidence and have the same effect as if made on oath before the Court or officer conducting the proceedings.

(3) If the court-martial is dissolved before receipt of such reply or if it omits to comply with the provisions of this section, the convening officer may, at his discretion, annul the proceedings and order a fresh trial by the same or another court-martial.

122. Evidence of previous convictions and general character.—(1) When any person subject to this Ordinance has been convicted by a court-martial of any offence, such court-martial may inquire into, and receive an record evidence of any previous conviction of such person, either by a court-martial held under this Ordinance or under any other enactment, or by a criminal Court, or of any previous award of punishment under sections 102 and 103 (to such extent as may be prescribed), and may further inquire into and record the general character of such person, an such other matters as may be prescribed.

(2) Evidence received under this section may be either oral or in the shape of entries in, or certified extracts from service records; and it shall not be necessary to give notice before trial to the person tried that evidence as to his previous convictions or character will be received.

123. Lunacy of accused.—(1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a court-martial, it appears to the Court that the person charged is by reason or unsoundness of mind incapable of making his defence, or that he committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind in capable of knowing the nature of the act or knowing that it was wrong or contrary to law, the Court shall record a finding accordingly.

(2) The president of the Court shall forthwith report the case to the confirming officer.

(3) The confirming officer to whom a case is reported under sub-section (2) may, if he does not confirm the finding, take steps to have the accused person tried by the same or another court-martial for the offence with which he was charged.

(4) The confirming officer confirming a finding in any case so reported to him under sub-section (2) shall order the accused person to be kept in custody in the prescribed manner and shall report the case for the orders of the ¹[Federal Government].

(5) On receipt of a report under sub-section (4) the ¹[Federal Government] may order the accused person to be detained in a lunatic asylum or other suitable place of safe custody.

124. Subsequent fitness of lunatic accused for trial. Where any accused person, having been found by reason of unsoundness of mind to be incapable of making his defence, is in custody or under detention under section 123 the officer commanding the ship or naval establishment within the area of whose command the accused is in custody or is detained, or any other office prescribed in this behalf, may—

- (a) If such person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 123 on the report of medical officer that he is capable of making his defence, or
- (b) if such person is detained in a jail under subsection (5) of section 123, on a certificate of the Inspector-General of Prisons, and if such person is detained in a lunatic asylum under the said sub-section, on a certificate of any two or more of the visitors of such asylum that he is capable of making his defence, take steps to have such person tried by the same or another court-martial for the offence with which he was originally charged, or, if the offence is civil offence, by a criminal Court.

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for “Central Government”.

125. Transmission to ¹[Federal Government] of orders under section 124.—A copy of every order made by an officer under section 124 for the trial of the accused person shall forthwith be sent to the ¹[Federal Government].

126. Release of lunatic accused.—Where any person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 123, or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section—

- (a) if such person is in custody under the said sub-section (4), on the report of a medical officer, or
- (b) if such person is detained under the said sub-section (5), on a certificate from any of the authorities mentioned in clause (b) of section 124, that, in the judgment of such officer or authority such person may be released without danger of his doing injury to himself or to any other person, the ¹[Federal Government] may order that such person be released, or detained in custody, or transferred to a public lunatic asylum if he has not already been sent to such an asylum.

127. Delivery of lunatic accused to relatives.—Where any relative or friend of any person, who is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 123 or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section, desires that he should be delivered to his care and custody, the ¹[Federal Government] may, upon application by such relative or friend and on his giving security to the satisfaction of that Government that the person delivered shall—

- (a) be properly taken care of and prevented from doing injury to himself or to any other person; and
- (b) be produced for the inspection of such authority, and at such times and places, as the ¹[Federal Government] may direct, order such person to be delivered to such relative or friend.

128. Order for custody and disposal of property pending trial.—When any property regarding which any offence appears to have been committed, or which appears to have been used for the commission of any offence, is produced before a court-martial during a trial, the Court may make such order as it thinks fit for the proper custody of such property pending the conclusion of the trial and, if the property is subject to speedy or natural decay, may, after recording such evidence as it thinks necessary, order it to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

129. Order for disposal of property regarding which offence is committed.—(1) After the conclusion of a trial before a court-martial, the Court or the officer confirming the finding or sentence of such court-martial or any authority superior to such officer, may make such order as it or he thinks fit for the disposal by destruction, confiscation, delivery to any person claiming to be entitled to possession thereof or otherwise of any property or document produced before the Court or in its custody, or regarding which any offence appears to have been committed or which has been used for the commission of any offence.

(2) Where any order has been made under sub-section (1) in respect of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, a copy of such order signed and certified by the authority making the same may, whether the trial was held within Pakistan or not, be sent to a magistrate in any district in which such property for the time being is, and such magistrate shall thereupon cause the order to be carried into effect as if it was an order passed by such magistrate under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

Explanation.—In this section the term “property” includes, in the case of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, not only such property as has been originally in the possession or under the control of any person, but also any property into or for which the same may have been converted or exchanged and anything acquired by such conversion or exchange whether immediately or otherwise.

CHAPTER XII—CONFIRMATION, REVISION AND REVIEW

130. Confirmation of finding and sentence.—(1) At the conclusion of a trial by court-martial, the finding and the sentence, if any, of the Court shall be signed by the president and the judge-advocate, if any, but they shall not be promulgated until they have been confirmed.

(2) The President of the court shall forward the proceedings of the court to the convening authority, who may confirm the same or transmit them for confirmation to a superior authority, if so directed by the warrant empowering him to convene the Court ¹[:]

¹[Provided that, in the absence of the convening authority, the proceedings shall be transmitted for confirmation to an authority superior in command to such authority.].

(3) No finding or sentence of a court-martial shall be valid unless and except to the extent to which it is confirmed in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance and the rules.

131. Power of confirming authority.—The confirming authority may order that the finding and the sentence of the Court—

- (a) be confirmed—
 - (i) as passed by the Court, or
 - (ii) subject to such mitigation, remission or commutation of the sentence as specified hereinafter;
- (b) be returned to the court once for revision, as specified hereinafter, prior to their being confirmed; or
- (c) be not confirmed.

²[131A. Sentence requiring confirmation by court of appeals.—(1) A punishment awarded as hadd under any Islamic law shall not be executed unless it is confirmed by the court of appeals and, until the punishment is confirmed and executed, the convict shall be dealt with in the same manner as if sentenced to simple imprisonment.

(2) The sentence of amputation of hand, foot or both shall be carried out by an authorized medical officer.

(3) If, at the time of the execution of the sentence, the authorized medical officer is of the opinion that the amputation of hand, foot or both may cause the death of the convict, the execution shall be postponed until such time as the apprehension of death cases.].

132. Power of confirming authority to mitigate, remit or commute sentences. A confirming authority may, when confirming the sentence of a court-martial, mitigate or remit the punishment thereby awarded, or commute that punishment for any punishment or punishments lower in the scale as laid down in this Ordinance:

Provided that a sentence of imprisonment shall not be commuted to a sentence of detention for a term exceeding the term of imprisonment awarded by the Court ¹[:]

¹[Provided further that a sentence awarded as hadd under any Islamic law shall not be so mitigated, remitted or commuted otherwise than in accordance with such law.]

133. Power of confirming authority to return the finding and sentence to the Court for revision.—(1) Any finding or sentence of a court-martial may be revised by it by order of the confirming authority but only once ; and in the course of such revision, the court, if so directed by the confirming authority, may take additional evidence.

(2) Except for the unavoidable absence of any of its members, the court, sitting in revision, shall consist of the same members as were present at the time of arriving at the finding or passing the sentence.

(3) In the case of unavoidable absence of any of its members the cause whereof shall be duly recorded in the proceedings, the court shall proceed with the revision, unless the president himself is absent or the number of member present is less than the minimum required to constitute the Court under section 99 in which case the court shall be dissolved and the accused may be tried by a court-martial constituted afresh.

134. Remedy against an order of court-martial before confirmation of finding or sentence.—(1) Any person subject to this Ordinance who consider himself aggrieved by any order passed by a court-martial may at the conclusion of the trial and before confirmation of the finding of the sentence, present a petition to the confirming authority.

(2) Before confirming any finding or sentence of a court-martial, the confirming authority shall take such steps as it considers necessary to satisfy itself of the correctness, legality and propriety of the order passed and of the regularity of the proceedings in which it was passed.

¹Subs and added by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt). Ordinance, 1984, (37 of 1984), s. 20.

135. Review by the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] finding and sentence. Any finding of guilty and any sentence awarded by a court martial in respect of such a finding may be reviewed by the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] at any time.

136. Remedy of aggrieved persons, on being convicted by a court-martial. Without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing section, a person convicted under this Ordinance by a court-martial may at any time present a petition against the finding or the sentence or both to the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] who may thereupon review the finding or the sentence or both.

137. Power to quash or alter findings.—(1) On review of a finding of a court-martial, the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] may—

- (a) in any case, quash the finding;
- (b) where some other finding of guilty could lawfully have been made by the Court before which the trial took place, and it appears to the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] that court must have been satisfied of facts necessary to justify that other finding, substitute that other finding.

(2) Where a finding is quashed under sub-section (1), then—

- (a) if the sentence passed in respect of that finding relates to that finding only, the sentence shall be quashed;
- (b) if the sentence relates to that and any other finding or findings, the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of Naval Staff] may substitute such sentence as is authorised by this Ordinance in respect of the other finding or findings.

(3) Where a finding is substituted under sub-section (1) the sentence may be substituted by any other sentence provided by this Ordinance in respect of the substituted finding.

(4) The punishment awarded by a sentence substituted under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) shall not be higher in the scale of punishments than, or in excess of the punishment awarded by the sentence for which the new sentence is substituted;

(5) Any finding or sentence substituted under the preceding sub-sections shall for all purposes be deemed to be the finding or sentence of the court before which the trial took place.

138. Power to remit or alter sentences.—(1) On the review of a sentence awarded by a court-martial, the ¹[Federal Government] or the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] may, subject to the provisions of this section,—

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for “Central Government”.

²Subs. ibid., Art 2 and Sch., for “Commander-in-Chief”.

- (a) annul the sentence;
- (b) remit the sentence in whole or in part;
- (c) commute the sentence for any other sentence provided by this Ordinance ; or
- (d) if the sentence is for any reason invalid, substitute such other sentence as could be awarded under this ordinance in respect of the relevant finding or findings.

(2) The punishment awarded by a sentence effective after commutation or substitution under sub-section (1) shall not be higher in the scale of punishments than, or in excess of, the punishment awarded by the sentence which is commuted or for which the new sentence is substituted.

(3) Any sentence effective after remission, commutation or substitution under sub-section (1), shall for all purposes be deemed to be the sentence of the court before which the trial took place.

¹[138A. Court of appeals.—(1) There shall be a court of appeals which shall hear appeals against the finding and sentence of a court-martial in a case punishable with hadd under an Islamic law ²[or when a person has been sentenced to death, imprisonment for a term exceeding three months or dismissal from service.]

(2) The court of appeals shall be appointed by the Chief of the Naval Staff and shall consist of officers of suitable rank and qualification who are eligible to serve on a court-martial.

(3) The court of appeals shall have the power to—

- (i) confirm the finding or sentence or both, and to exercise the same powers in that respect as are available to a confirming authority under this Ordinance ;
- (ii) order retrial of the accused ;
- (iii) quash the finding ;
- (iv) alter the finding ;
- (v) revise the finding ;
- (vi) where some other finding of guilty could lawfully have been made by the trial and it appears to the court of appeals that the trial court must have been satisfied of facts necessary to justify that other finding, substitute that other finding.

¹Ins. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance. 1984 (37 of 1984), s.21.

²Subs. by Act 29 of 1992, s. 2.

(4) Where a finding is quashed under clause (iii) of sub-section (3), then,—

- (i) if the sentence passed in respect of that finding relates to that finding only, the sentence shall be quashed; and
- (ii) if the sentence relates to that and any other finding, or findings, the court of appeals may substitute such sentence as is authorized by this Ordinance in respect of the other finding or findings.

(5) Where a finding is altered or substituted under clause (iv) or clause (vi) of sub-section (3), the court of appeals may pass such sentence as is authorized by this Ordinance or it may substitute the sentence by any other sentence provided by this Ordinance in respect of the substitute finding :

Provided that no order under this sub-section shall be made to the prejudice of the accused unless he has been afforded an opportunity of being heard either personally or by his defending officer or his counsel.

(6) The decision of the court of appeals shall be final and shall not be called in question before any court or other authority.]

139. Saving of functions of Judge Advocate-General. Nothing in this Chapter shall affect the powers and functions of the Judge Advocate-General in relation to the naval tribunals including his functions of considering and reporting on the proceedings of such tribunals.

140. Bar of appeals. No Court shall question the correctness, legality or propriety of any proceeding, order, finding or sentence of any naval tribunal, and no appeal, revision or other remedy shall lie in respect of any such proceeding, order, finding or sentence save in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

CHAPTER XIII.-EXECUTION OF SENTENCES

¹[141. Form of sentence of stoning to death and death. In awarding a sentence of death, a court-martial shall direct that the sentence shall be executed in the manner provided for in the Offence of Zina (Enforcement of Hudood) Ordinance, 1979 (VII of 1979).

(2) In awarding a sentence of death, a court-martial shall, in its discretion, direct that the offender shall suffer death by being hanged by the neck until he be dead, or shall suffer death by being shot to death.]

142. Commencement of sentence of imprisonment or detention. The term of a sentence of imprisonment or detention under this Ordinance, whether the sentence has been revised or not, shall be reckoned as commencing on the day on which the sentence is signed by the president of the court-martial or the officer trying the case.

¹Subs. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1984 (37 of 1984), s. 22, for section 141.

143. Execution of sentence of imprisonment. The officer who confirms the sentence or such other officer as may be prescribed, may direct that the sentence of imprisonment in any particular case shall be carried out by confinement in a civil prison or by confinement in a military, naval or air force prison, and the commanding officer of the person under sentence or such other officer as may be prescribed, shall forward a warrant in the prescribed form to the officer in charge of the prison in which the person is to be confined, and shall forward him to such prison with the warrant :

Provided that in the case of a sentence of imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, the sentence may be directed to be carried out by confinement in naval custody instead of a prison:

Provided further that on active service a sentence of imprisonment may be carried out by confinement in such place as the officer commanding the naval forces may from time to time appoint.

¹[143A. Form of sentence of amputation of hand, foot or both or whipping.— (1) In awarding a sentence of amputation of hand, foot or both, a court-martial shall direct that the sentence shall be executed in the manner provided for in the Offences Against Property (Enforcement of Hudood) Ordinance, 1979 (VI of 1979).

(2) In awarding a sentence of whipping, a court-martial shall direct that the sentence shall be executed in the manner provided for in the Execution of the Punishment of Whipping Ordinance, 1979 (IX of 1997).]

144. Execution of sentence of detention. A sentence of detention under this Ordinance shall be carried out by detaining the offender in any military, naval or air force detention barracks, detention cells or other military, naval or air force custody, and when the sentence is to be carried out by detention in any military, naval or air force detention barracks, the commanding officer of the person under sentence, or such other officer as may be prescribed, shall forward the person under sentence, together with a warrant in the prescribed form, to the officer in charge of the said detention barracks.

²[144A. Execution of sentence of fine. When a sentence of fine is imposed by a court-martial under this Ordinance, whether the trial was held within Pakistan or not; copy of such sentence, signed and certified by the President of the court or the convening officer, as the case may be, shall be sent to a Magistrate in Pakistan, and such Magistrate shall thereupon cause the fine to be recovered in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the levy of fines as if it were a sentence of fine imposed by such Magistrate.].

145. Interim custody of persons under sentence of ³[stoning to death or] death, imprisonment or detention.—(1) When a person is sentenced by a court-martial to suffer ³[stoning to death or] death and the sentence has been confirmed, the commanding officer of such person, or such officer as may be prescribed may, if he thinks fit, by warrant in the prescribed form, commit the said person to safe custody in a civil prison pending the execution of the sentence, and may similarly, by warrant in the prescribed form direct that the person so committed be re-delivered to naval custody, or that he be released or confined in accordance with any order duly made under this Ordinance setting aside or varying the sentence of ¹[stoning to death or] death.

(2) Any such warrant as aforesaid shall be sufficient authority for the execution of the orders contained therein.

(3) A person sentenced under this Ordinance to imprisonment or detention may, until he reaches the prison or detention barracks in which he is to undergo his sentence, be kept in naval custody or in civil custody, or partly in one description of custody and partly in the other, and may, by order of such officer as may be prescribed, from time to time, be transferred from one to the other, as occasion may require.

146. Authority for committal and transfer of prisoners. A warrant issued in accordance with the provisions of section 143 or section 144, or an order of the prescribed officer for the transfer of a person undergoing a sentence of imprisonment or detention from one description of custody to another, shall be sufficient authority for committing the person concerned to prison, detention barrack or naval custody or, as the case may be, for transferring him from one description of custody to the other.

147. Conveying of prisoners from place to place. A person under sentence of ¹[stoning to death, death, amputation of hand, foot or both, imprisonment, detention or whipping] may, while he is being conveyed from one place to another, or when on board a ship, aircraft, or other vehicle be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his safe conduct and removal.

148. Communication of certain orders to prison officers.—(I) Whenever an order is duly made under this Ordinance setting aside or varying any sentence, order or warrant under which any person is confined in a civil, military, naval or air force prison or detained in a military, naval or air force detention barracks a warrant in accordance with such order shall be forwarded by the prescribed officer to the officer-in-charge of the prison or detention barracks in which such person is confined.

(2) Any such warrant shall be sufficient authority for the execution of the orders contained therein.

149. Establishment and Regulation of naval prisons or detention barracks. The ²[Federal Government] may set apart any building or part of a building, or any place under its control, as a naval prison or detention barracks for the confinement of persons sentenced to ¹[stoning to death, death, amputation of hand foot or both, imprisonment, detention or whipping] under this Ordinance.

150. Power to make rules in respect of prisons and prisoners. The ²[Federal Government] may make rules providing:—

- (a) for the government, management and Regulation of naval prisons and detention barracks ;

¹Subs. and ins. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1984 (37 of 1984) s s. 25 and 26, for “imprisonment or detention”.

²Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for “Central Government”.

- (b) for the appointment, removal and powers of inspectors, visitors governors and officers thereof;
- (c) for the labour of prisoners undergoing confinement therein, and for enabling, such prisoners to earn by special industry and good conduct, a remission of a portion of their sentence ;
- (d) for the safe custody of such prisoners and the maintenance of discipline among them and the punishment by personal correction, restraint or otherwise, of offences committed by them ;
- (e) for the application to naval prisons or detention barracks of any of the provisions of the Prisons Act, 1894 (IX of 1894), relating to the duties of officers of prisons ;
- (f) for the admissions into any prison, at proper times and subject to proper restrictions, of persons with whom prisoners may desire to communicate, and for the consultation by prisoners under trial with their legal advisers without the presence as far as possible of any third party within hearing distance.

151. Restriction of rule-making power in respect of corporal punishment. Rules made under section 150 shall not authorise corporal punishment to be inflicted for any offence, nor render the imprisonment more severe than it is under any law for the time being in force relating to civil prisons in Pakistan.

152. Procedural defect or error in the order or warrant. Confinement of a person undergoing a sentence of imprisonment or detention under this Ordinance in any place or manner in which he might be confined under a lawful order or warrant under this Ordinance, shall not be deemed to be illegal only by reason of any procedural defect or error in or as respects the order, warrant or other document, or the authority by which, or in pursuance whereof such person was brought into or is confined in any such place, and any such order, warrant or document may be amended for rectifying such defect or error.

CHAPTER XIV PARDONS, REMISSIONS AND SUSPENSION

153. Pardon and remission. When any person subject to this Ordinance has been convicted by a naval tribunal of any offence, the ¹[Federal Government], the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] or, any officer not below the rank of captain empowered in this behalf by the ²[Chief of the Naval Staff] may,

¹Subs. by F.A.O., 1975, Art. 2 and Table, for "Central Government".

²Subs. ibid., and Sch., for "Commander-in-Chief".

- (i) either without conditions or upon any conditions which the person sentenced accepts, pardon the person or remit the whole or any part of the punishment awarded, or
- (ii) mitigate the punishment awarded, or commute such punishment for any less punishment or punishments mentioned in this Ordinance :

Provided that a sentence of imprisonment shall not be commuted for a sentence of detention for a term exceeding the term of imprisonment awarded by the court ¹[:]

²[Provided further that, if a sentence of hadd has been awarded under an Islamic law, no order shall be made under this section otherwise than in accordance with such law].

154. Cancellation of conditional pardon or remission. If any condition on which a person has been pardoned or a punishment has been remitted is, in the opinion of the authority which granted the pardon or remitted the punishment, not fulfilled, such authority may cancel the pardon or remission, and thereupon the sentence shall be carried into effect as if such pardon had not been granted or such punishment had not been remitted :

Provided that in the case of a person sentenced to imprisonment or detention such person shall undergo only the unexpired portion of his sentence.

155. Suspension of sentence of imprisonment, detention or whipping.—(1) Where a person subject to this Ordinance has been sentenced by a court-martial to imprisonment ³[detention or whipping], the ⁴[Federal Government] or the ⁵[Chief of the Naval Staff] or any officer empowered to convene a general or summary general court-martial may suspend the sentence whether or not the offender has already been committed to prison or custody ¹[:]

²[Provided that, if a sentence of hadd has been awarded under an Islamic law, no order shall be made under this section except while the offender is on active service nor otherwise than in accordance with such law.]

(2) The authority or officer specified in sub-section (1) may in the case of an offender so sentenced direct that, until the orders of such authority or officer have been obtained, the offender shall not be committed to prison or custody.

(3) The powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (2) may be exercised in the case of any such sentence which has been confirmed, mitigated or commuted.

156. Orders pending suspension. A confirming officer or an officer exercising powers of summary trial may, when a person has been sentenced to imprisonment or detention, direct that the offender be not committed to prison or to custody until the orders of the authority or officer specified in section 155 have been obtained.

157. Release on suspension. When a sentence is suspended under section 155, the offender shall, whether he has been committed to prison or to custody or not, be released forthwith.

158. Computation of period of suspension. Any period during which the sentence is under suspension shall be reckoned as part of the term of such sentence.

159. Order after suspension. The authority or officer specified in section 155 may, at any time whilst a sentence is suspended, order-

- (a) that the offender be committed to undergo the un-expired portion of the sentence ; or
- (b) that the sentence be remitted.

160. Reconsideration of case after suspension.—(1) Where a sentence has been suspended, the case may at any time, and shall, at intervals of not more than four months, be reconsidered by the authority or officer specified in section 155, or by an officer not below the rank of lieutenant commander duly authorised by the authority or officer specified in section 155.

(2) Where on such reconsideration by the officer so authorised it appears to him that the conduct of the offender since his conviction has been such as to justify a remission of the sentence, he shall refer the matter to the authority or officer specified in section 155.

161. Fresh sentence after suspension. Where an offender, while a sentence on him is suspend under this Ordinance, is sentenced for any other offence, then—

- (a) if the further sentence is also suspended under this Ordinance, the two sentences shall run concurrently ;
- (b) if the further sentence is for a period of three months or more and is not suspended under this Ordinance, the offender shall also be committed to prison or naval custody for the unexpired portion of the previous sentence, but both sentences shall run concurrently ; and

- (c) if the further sentence is for a period of less than three months and is not suspended under this Ordinance the offender shall be so committed on that sentence only, and the previous sentence shall, subject to any order which may be passed under section 159 or section 160, continue to be suspended.

162. Scope of power of suspension. The powers conferred by sections 155 and 159 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the power of mitigation, remission and commutation.

163. Effect of suspension and remission on dismissal.—(1) Where in addition to any other sentence the punishment of dismissal has been awarded by a court-martial, and such other sentence is suspended under section 155, then, such dismissal shall not take effect until so ordered by the authority or officer specified in that section.

(2) If such other sentence is remitted under section 159, the punishment of dismissal shall also be remitted.

CHAPTER XV.—PROPERTY OF DECEASED PERSONS, DESERTERS AND LUNATICS.

164. Property of deceased persons and deserters other than officers. The following provisions shall apply to the disposal of the property of every person subject to this Ordinance, other than an officer, who dies or deserts, namely :—

(1) The commanding officer of the ship or naval establishment, to which the deceased person or deserter belonged, shall secure all the movable property belonging to the deceased or deserter that is in ship or naval establishment and cause an inventory thereof to be made, and draw any pay and allowances due to such person.

(2) In the case of a deceased person who has left in a bank (including any post office saving bank, co-operative bank or society or any other institution receiving deposits in money, howsoever named) a deposit not exceeding ¹[ten] thousand rupees, the commanding officer may, if he thinks fit, require the agent, manager or other proper officer of such bank or other institution to pay the deposit to him forthwith ; notwithstanding anything in any rules of the bank or the other institution and when any money has been paid by such bank or other institution in compliance with such requisition, no person shall have any claim against the bank or the other institution in respect of such money.

¹Subs. by the Pakistan Navy (Amdt.) Ordinance, 1980 (55 of 1980), s. 24, for “one”.

(3) In the case of a deceased person whose representative, widow or next of kin is on the spot and has given security for the payment of the service or other debts in ship or naval establishment, if any of the deceased, the commanding officer may if he thinks fit deliver over any property, received under clauses (1) and (2) to that representative, widow or next of kin, as the case may be, and shall not further interfere in relation to the property of the deceased.

(4) In the case of a deceased person whose estate is not dealt with under clause (3), and in the case of any deserter, the commanding officer shall cause the movable property to be sold by public auction, and may convert into money any cash certificates (including post office cash certificates, defence savings certificates and national savings certificates) and shall pay the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment, if any, from the proceeds of the sale or conversion and from any pay and allowances drawn under clause (1) and from the amount of the deposit, if any, received under clause (2).

(5) The surplus, if any, shall in the case of a deceased person, be paid to his representative, widow or next of kin, if any, or, in the event of no claim to such surplus being established within twelve months after the death, then the same shall be remitted to the prescribed person :

Provided that such remission shall not bar the claim of any person to such surplus or any part thereof.

(6) In the case of a deserter, the surplus, if any, shall be forthwith remitted to the prescribed person and shall, on the expiry of three years from the date of his desertion, be forfeited to the Government, unless the deserter shall in the meantime have surrendered or been apprehended.

(7) The decision of the commanding officer as to what are the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment of a deceased person or a deserter and as to the amount payable therefore shall be final.

165. Disposal of certain property without production of probate, etc. (other than officers). Property deliverable and money payable to the representative, widow or next of kin, of a deceased person under section 164 may, if the total value or amount thereof does not exceed one thousand rupees, and if the prescribed person thinks fit, be delivered or paid to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased, without requiring the production of any probate, letters of administration, certificate or other such conclusive evidence of title; and such delivery or payment shall be a full discharge to those ordering or making the same and to the Government from all further liability in respect of the property or money ; but nothing in this section shall affect the rights of any executor or administrator or other representative, or of any creditor of a deceased person against any person to whom such delivery or payment has been made ¹[:]

¹[Provided that when the deceased was attached to, or found part of, a force which was not an active service, the prescribed person shall obtain from the representative, widow or next of kin to whom the aforesaid amount is paid, and undertaking to the effect that the amount left after payment of debts, if any, shall be distributed amongst the legal heirs of the deceased.].

166. Application of sections 164 and 165 to lunatics, etc. The provisions of sections 164 and 165 shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply in the case of a person subject to this Ordinance (not being an officer) who notwithstanding anything contained in the Lunacy Act, 1912 (IV of 1912), is ascertained in the prescribed manner to be insane, or, who being on active service, is officially reported missing, as if he had died on the day on which his insanity is so ascertained, or as the case may be, on the day on which he is officially reported missing:

Provided that in the case of a person so reported missing, no action shall be taken under clauses (2) to (5) of section 164 until such time as he is officially presumed to be dead.

167. Property of officers who die or desert. The provisions of sections 168 to 173 shall apply to the disposal of the property of officers subject to this Ordinance who die or desert.

168. Powers of Committee of Adjustment.—(1) On the death or desertion of an officer, a Committee of Adjustment appointed in this behalf in the manner prescribed (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) shall, as soon as may be, subject to rules—

- (a) secure all the movable property belonging to the deceased or deserter that is in ship or naval establishment and cause an inventory thereof to be made, and ascertain and draw the pay and allowances, if any, due to him ;and
- (b) ascertain the amount, and provide for the payment, of the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment if any, of the deceased or deserter.

(2) In the case of a deceased officer whose representative, widow or next of kin has given security to the satisfaction of the Committee for the payment of the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment, if any, of the deceased, the Committee shall deliver any property received by it under sub-section (1) to that representative, widow or next of kin, as the case may be, and shall not further interfere in relation to the property of the deceased.

(3) In the case of a deceased officer the Committee, save as may be prescribed shall, if it appears to it necessary for the payment of service and other debts in ship or naval establishment and the expenses, if any, incurred by the Committee, and may, in any other case, collect all moneys left by the deceased in any bank (including any post office savings bank, co-operative bank or society or any other institution receiving deposits in money, however named) and for that purpose may require the agent, manager or other proper officer of such bank, society or other institution to pay the moneys to Committee forthwith, and such agent, manager or other officer shall comply with the requisition notwithstanding anything in any rules of the bank or other institution ; and when any money has been paid by a bank or other institution in compliance with the requisition under this sub-section, no person shall have a claim against the bank or other institution in respect of such money.

(4) In the case of a deceased officer whose estate has not been dealt with under sub-section (2) and in the case of a deserter the Committee subject to rules, shall, for the purpose of paying the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment, and may, in any other case, sell or convert into money the movable property of the deceased or deserter.

(5) The Committee shall, out of the moneys referred to in sub-section (3) and (4), pay the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment if any, of the deceased or deserter and in the case of a deceased, also the expenses of his last illness.

(6) In the case of a deceased officer, the surplus, if any, shall be remitted to the prescribed person.

(7) In the case of an officer who is a deserter, the surplus, if any, shall be forthwith remitted to the prescribed person and shall, on the expiry of three years from the date of his desertion, be forfeited to Government unless the deserter shall in the meantime have surrendered or been apprehended;

Provided that the prescribed person may pay the whole or such part the surplus as he may deem proper to the wife or children or other dependant of the officer.

(8) If in any case a doubt or difference arises as to what are the service and other debts in ship or naval establishment of a deceased officer or deserter or as to the amount payable therefor, the decision of the prescribed person shall be final and shall be binding on all persons for all purposes.

(9) For the purposes of the exercise of its duties under this section, the Committee shall, to the exclusion of all authorities and persons whomsoever have the same rights and powers as if it had taken out representation to the deceased ; and any receipt given by the Committee shall have effect accordingly.

169. Disposal of surplus by the prescribed person. On receipt of the surplus referred to in sub-section (6) of section 168 the prescribed person shall proceed as follows:—

(1) If he knows of a representative, widow or next of kin of the deceased he shall pay the surplus to that representative, widow or next of kin.

(2) If he does not know of any such representative, widow or next of kin, he shall publish every year a notice in the prescribed form and manner for six consecutive years and if no claim to the surplus is made by a representative, widow or next of kin, of the deceased within six months after the publication of the last of such notices, the prescribed person shall deposit the surplus together with any income or accumulation of income accrued there from to the credit of the ¹[Federal Government] :

Provided that such deposit shall not bar the claim of any person to such surplus or any part thereof ²[:]

²[Provided further that when the deceased officer was attached to, or formed part of, a force which was not on active service, the prescribed person shall obtain from the representative, widow or next of kin to whom the surplus amount is paid an undertaking to the effect that the amount left after payment of debts, if any, shall be distributed amongst the legal heirs of the deceased.].

170. Disposal of certain property without production of probate, etc. Property deliverable and money payable to the representative, widow or next of kin of a deceased officer under section 168 or section 169 may, if the total amount of value thereof does not exceed five thousand rupees, and, if the prescribed person thinks fit, be delivered or paid to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased, without requiring the production of any probate, letters of administration, succession certificate or other such conclusive evidence of title.

171. Discharge of Committee, prescribed person and the Government. Any payment of money or delivery, application, sale or other disposition of any property or money made, or purported to be made by the Committee or the prescribed person in good faith in pursuance of section 168, section 169 or section 170 shall be valid and shall be a full discharge to the Committee or the prescribed person, as the case may be, and to Government from all further liability in respect of that money or property ; but nothing therein contained shall affect the right of any executor or administration or other representative, or of any creditor of the deceased officer against any person to whom such payment or delivery has been made.

172. Property in the hands of the Committee or the prescribed person not to be assets at the place where the Committee or the prescribed person is stationed. Any property coming under section 168 into the hands of the Committee or the prescribed person shall not, by reason of so coming, be deemed to be assets or effects at the place in which that Committee or the prescribed person is stationed and it shall not be necessary by reason thereof that representation be taken out in respect of that property for that place.

173. Saving of rights of representative.-After the Committee has deposited with the prescribed person the surplus of the property of any deceased officer under sub-section (6) of section 168, any representative of the deceased shall, as regards any property of the deceased not collected by the Committee and not forming part of the aforesaid surplus, have the same rights and duties as if section 168 had not been enacted.

174. Application of sections 168 to 173 to lunatics, etc. The provisions of sections 168 to 173 shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply in the case of an officer who, notwithstanding anything contained in the Lunacy Act, 1912 (IV of 1912), is ascertained in the prescribed manner to be insane, or, who, being on active service, is officially reported missing as if he had died on the day on which his insanity is so ascertained or, as the case may be, on the day on which he is officially reported missing:

Provided that in the case of an officer so reported missing no action shall be taken under sub-sections (2) to (5) of section 168 until such time as he is officially presumed to be dead.

175. Appointment of Standing Committee of Adjustment when officers die or desert while on active service. When an officer dies or deserts while on active service, the references in the foregoing provisions of this Chapter to the Committee shall be construed as references to the Standing Committee of Adjustment, if any, appointed in this behalf in the manner prescribed.

176. Interpretations. For the purposes of this Chapter—

- (1) a person shall be deemed to be a deserter if he without authority has been absent from duty for a period of thirty days and has not subsequently surrendered or been apprehended ;
- (2) the expression “service and other debts in ship or naval establishment” includes money due as naval debts, namely, sums due in respect of, or any advance in respect of—
 - (a) quarters ;
 - (b) mess, band, and other service accounts ; and
 - (c) naval clothing, appointments and equipments, not exceeding a sum equal to three months’ pay of the deceased, and having become due within eighteen months before his death ;
- (3) “representation” includes probate and letters of administration with or without the will annexed, and a succession certificate, constituting a person the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person or authorising him to receive or realize the assets of a deceased person ;
- (4) “representative” means any person who has taken out representation.

⁵[CHAPTER XVIII—SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

182. Crews of ships lost or destroyed. When any one of the naval ships or naval vessels is wrecked, lost or destroyed, or taken by the enemy, such ship or vessel shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed to remain in commission until her crew is regularly removed into some other naval ships or naval vessels, or until a general court-martial has been held, pursuant to the cause of the wreck, loss, destruction or capture of the said ship or vessel.

183. All the officers and crew of lost ship may be tried by one court. When no specific charges are made against any officer or chief petty officer or sailor or other person in the fleet for or in respect or in consequence of any wreck, loss, destruction or capture by the enemy of any naval ship or naval vessel, it shall be lawful to try all the officers and crew, or all the surviving officers and crew of any such ship or vessel together before one and the same court, and to call upon all or any of them to give evidence on oath or affirmation before the court touching any of the matters then under inquiry, but no officer or chief petty officer or sailor or other person shall be obliged to give any evidence which may tend to criminate himself :

Provided that, if the Federal Government or the Chief of the Naval Staff or any officer authorized to convene court-martial considers necessary, it or he may convene separate courts-martial for the trial of one or more such officers and crew.

184. For subsequent offence separate court. For any offence or offence committed by any officer or chief petty officer or sailor, or officers and chief petty officer and sailors after the wreck, loss, destruction or capture of any naval ship or naval vessel, a separate court-martial shall be held for the trial of such offender or offenders.

185. Pay of crews of ships lost or taken. When any naval ship or naval vessel is wrecked, lost or otherwise destroyed, or taken by the enemy, if it appears from the sentence of a court-martial that the crew of such ship or vessel did, in the case of ship or vessel wrecked or lost, their utmost to save her or get her off, and in the case of such ship or vessel taken by the enemy did their utmost to defend themselves, and that they have, since the wreck, destruction, loss or capture of such ship or vessel, behaved themselves well, and been obedient to their officers, then all the pay of such crews, or of such portions of such crews as have behaved themselves well and been obedient to their officers, shall be continued until the time of their being discharged or removed into other naval ship or naval vessel, or of their death.

186. When ship of senior officer is lost he may dispose of officers and crew of lost ships. If the naval ship of any officer ordered to command any two or more of naval ships is wrecked, lost or otherwise destroyed, such officer shall continue in the command of any ship or ships which at the time of his ship being wrecked, lost or destroyed was or were under his command, and it shall be lawful for such officer to order the surviving officers and crew of the wrecked, lost or destroyed ship to join any other ship under his command, or to distribute them among the other ships under his command, if more than one, and such officer shall, until he meets-with some other officer senior to himself, have the same power and authority in all respects as if his ship had not been wrecked, lost or destroyed.]
