THE PREVENTION OF CORRUPTION ACT, 1947

<sup>1</sup>(ACT No. II OF 1947)

[11th March, 1947]

An Act for the more effective prevention of bribery and corruption

WHEREAS it is expedient to make more effective provision for the prevention of bribery and corruption;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947.

<sup>2</sup>[(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan and applies to all citizens of Pakistan and persons in the service of Government wherever they may be.]

2. Interpretation.—For the purposes of this Act, “public servant” means a public servant as defined in section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860) <sup>4</sup>[and includes an employee of any corporation or other body or organization set <sup>5</sup>[controlled or administered by, or under the authority of,] the <sup>6</sup>[Federal Government] <sup>7</sup>[and provincial government and institution where government capital, share or control is involved]].

3. Offences under sections 161 and 165 of the Penal Code to be cognizable offences.—An offence punishable under Section 161 <sup>8</sup>[, 162, 163, 164, 165 or 165-A] of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860) shall be deemed to be a cognizable offence for the purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein:

The Act has been applied to Baluchistan, see Gazette of India, 1947. Pt.I, p.535.

The Act has been applied to whole of the Province of West Pakistan by the West Pakistan Ordinance 31 of 1958, s.2.

It has been extended to the Leased Areas of Baluchistan by the Leased Areas (Laws) Order, 1950 (G.G.O.3 of 1950).

It has also been amended in its application to the Province of West Pakistan by W.P.Ord.17 of 1960, s.2 (with effect from the 17th May, 1960).

<sup>2</sup>Subs. by the Central Laws (Statute Reform) Ordinance, 1960 (21 of 1960),s.3 and 2nd Sch. (with effect from the 14th October, 1955), for the original sub-section (2), as amended by A.O., 1949.

<sup>8</sup>Subs. by the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1953 (37 of 1953),s.5, for “or section 165.

4. Presumption where public servant accepts gratification other than legal remuneration.—<sup>1</sup>[(1)] Where in any trial of an offence punishable under section 161 or section 165 of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860), it is proved that an accused person has accepted or obtained, or has agreed to accept or attempted to obtain, for himself or for any other person, any gratification (other than legal remuneration) or any valuable thing from any person, it shall be presumed unless the contrary is proved that he accepted or obtained, or agreed to accept or attempted to obtain, that gratification or that valuable thing, as the case may be, as a motive or reward such as it mentioned in the said section 161, or, as the case may be, without consideration or for a consideration which he knows to be inadequate:

<sup>3</sup>[(2)] Where in any trial of an offence punishable under section 165A of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), it is proved that any gratification (other than legal remuneration) or any valuable thing has been given or offered to be given or attempted to be given by any accused person, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that he gave or offered to give or attempted to give that gratification or that valuable thing, as the case may be, as a motive or reward such as is mentioned in section 161 of the said Code, or, as the case may be, without consideration or for a consideration which he knew to be inadequate.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the court may decline to draw the presumption referred to in either of the said sub-sections if the gratification or thing aforesaid is, in its opinion, so trivial that no inference of corruption may fairly be drawn.]

5. Criminal misconduct.—(1) A public servant is said to commit the offence of criminal misconduct <sup>4</sup>[* * *]—

- (a) if he <sup>5</sup>* accepts or obtains or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain from any person for himself or for any other person, any gratification (other than legal remuneration) as a motive or reward such as is mentioned in section 161 of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860), or
- (b) if he <sup>5</sup>* accepts or obtains or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain for himself or for any other person, any valuable thing without consideration or for a consideration which he knows to be inadequate, from any person whom he knows to have been, or to be, or to be likely to be concerned in any proceeding or business transacted or about to be transacted by him, or having any connection with the official functions of himself or of any public servant to whom he is subordinate, or from any person whom he knows to be interested in or related to the person so concerned, or
- (c) if he dishonestly or fraudulently misappropriates or otherwise converts for his own use any property entrusted to him or under his control as a public servant or allows any other person so to do, or

- (d) if he, by corrupt or illegal means or by otherwise abusing his position as public servant, obtains for himself or for any other person any valuable thing or pecuniary advantage <sup>1</sup>[, or]
- <sup>2</sup>[(e) if he, or any of his dependants, is in possession, for which the public servant cannot reasonably account, of pecuniary resources or of property disproportionate to his known sources of income.

Explanation.—In this clause “dependant” in relation public servant, means his wife, children and step-children, parents, sisters and minor brothers residing with and wholly dependent on him.]

(2) Any public servant who commits <sup>3</sup>[or attempts to commit] criminal misconduct <sup>4</sup>[* * *] shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to <sup>5</sup>[ten years but not less than seven years].

(3) In any trial of an offence punishable under sub-section (2) the fact that the accused person or any other person on his behalf is in possession, for which the accused person cannot satisfactorily account, of pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to his known sources of income may be proved, and on such proof the Court shall presume, unless the contrary is proved, that the accused person is guilty of criminal misconduct <sup>4</sup>[* * *] and his conviction therefor shall not be invalid by reason only that it is based solely on such presumption.

<sup>6</sup>[(4) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other law for the time being in force, and nothing contained herein shall exempt any public servant from any proceeding which might, apart from this section, be instituted against him.]

<sup>7</sup>[5-A Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), no officer below the rank of <sup>8</sup>[Inspector] of Police shall investigate any offence punishable under any of the sections of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), mentioned in section 3 or any offence punishable under section 5 without an order of a Magistrate of the first class or make an arrest therefor without a warrant:

Provided that an officer of the Special Police Establishment not below the rank of Inspector of Police who is specially authorised in this behalf by the Inspector-General of that Establishment, or any other police officer so authorised by the Provincial Government, may, if he has reason to believe that on account of the delay involved in obtaining the order of a Magistrate of the first class any valuable evidence relating to such offence is likely to be destroyed or concealed, investigate the offence without such order, but in every case where he makes such investigation, he shall, as soon as may be, send a report of the same to a Magistrate of the first class together with the circumstances in which the investigation was made.]
