45. Restriction on stay order.—(1) The High Court may, on the application of a banking company which is temporarily unable to meet its obligations make an order staying for a fixed period on such terms and conditions as it may think fit the commencement or continuance of all proceedings against the company and may from time to time extend the period so however that the total period including the period of any stay order granted under the proviso to sub-section (2), shall not exceed six months.

(2) Except as hereinafter provided no order of stay shall be granted upon such application unless it is accompanied by a report of the State Bank showing that in the opinion of the State Bank the banking company will be able to pay its debts if the application is granted:

(5) Where the State Bank is satisfied that the affairs of a banking company in respect of which an order under sub-section (1) has been made, are being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the depositors, it may make an application to the High Court for the winding up of the company, and where any such application is made, the High Court shall not make any order extending the period for which the commencement or continuance of all actions and proceedings against the company were stayed under that sub-section.

(2) The <sup>2</sup>[Federal Government], after considering the application made by the State Bank under sub-section (1), may make an order of moratorium staying the commencement or continuance of all action and proceedings against the company for a fixed period of time on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit and proper and may from time to time extend the period so however that the total period of moratorium shall not exceed six months.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by any directions given by the <sup>2</sup>[Federal Government] in the order made by it under sub-section (2) or at any time thereafter, the banking company shall not during the period of moratorium make any payment to any depositors or discharge any liabilities or obligations to any other creditors.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], no Court shall entertain an application for winding up of banking company by the Court unless such application is accompanied by a certificate in writing from the State Bank certifying that it has no objection to the making of such application.

Provided that where the High Court, after giving the court liquidator and the State Bank an opportunity of being heard, is of opinion that the appointment of the court liquidator would be detrimental to the interests of the depositors of the banking company, it may direct the person appointed as the official liquidator to continue to act as such.

51. State Bank to be official liquidator.—Notwithstanding anything contained in section 50, or in section 175 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], where in any proceeding for the winding up of a banking company by the High Court the State Bank applies for an order appointing the State Bank or any individual as the official liquidator of the banking company in that proceeding, the application shall ordinarily be granted and the liquidator, if any, functioning in such proceeding shall vacate office upon such appointment.

commencement, the official liquidator shall, for the purpose of making an estimate of the debts and liabilities of the banking company (other than its liabilities and obligations to its depositors), by notice served in such manner as the State Bank may direct, call upon—

- (a) every claimant entitled to preferential payment under section 230 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], and
- (b) every secured and every unsecured creditor, to send to the official liquidator within one month from the date of the service of the notice a statement of the amount claimed by him.

(2) Every notice under sub-section (1) sent to a claimant having a claim under section 230 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], shall state that if a statement of the claim is not sent to the official liquidator before the expiry of the period of one month from the date of the service, the claim shall not be treated as a claim entitled to be paid under that section in priority to all other debts but shall be treated as an ordinary debt due by the banking company.

(3) Every notice under sub-section (1) sent to a secured creditor shall require him to value his security before the expiry of the period of one month from the date of the service of the notice and shall state that if a statement of the claim together with the valuation of the security is not sent to the official liquidator before the expiry of the said period, then the official liquidator shall himself value the security and such valuation shall be binding on the creditor.

(4) If a claimant fails to comply with the notice sent to him under sub-section (1), his claim will not be entitled to be paid under section 230 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], in priority to all other debts but shall be treated as an ordinary debt due by the banking company; and if a secured creditor fails to comply with the notice sent to him under sub-section (1), the official liquidator shall himself value the security and such valuation shall be binding on the creditor.

56. Power to dispense with meetings of creditors, etc.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sections 178A and 183 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], the High Court may, in the proceedings for winding-up a banking company, dispense with any meetings of creditors or contributories or with the appointment of a committee of inspection if it considers that no object will be secured thereby sufficient to justify the delay and expense.

57. Booked depositors' credits to be deemed proved.— In any proceeding for the winding-up of a banking company, every depositor of the banking company shall be deemed to have filed his claim for the amount shown in the books of the banking company as standing to his credit and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 191 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], the High Court shall presume such claim to have been proved, unless the official liquidator shows that there is reason for doubting its correctness.

<sup>2</sup>58. Priority payments to depositors.— (1) In every proceeding for winding-up of a banking company where a winding-up order has been made, within ninety days from the date of the winding-up order or where the winding-up order has been made before 1st day of August, 2001, within ninety days therefrom, the payments referred to in sub-section (2) shall be made by the official liquidator or adequate provision for such payments shall be made by him.

(3) The total amount paid under sub-section (2) shall not exceed a sum of one hundred thousand rupees –

- (i) where a depositor is maintaining more than one account with a banking company; and
- (ii) in the case of joint account holders of an account.

(4) Where within the period of ninety days as specified in sub-section (1), full payments cannot be made of the amounts required to be paid under sub-section (2) with the assets in cash, the official liquidator shall pay within that period to every depositor on a pro rata basis so much of the amount due to every depositor as the official liquidator is able to pay with those assets, and shall pay the rest of that amount to every depositor as and when sufficient assets are collected by the official liquidator in cash.

(5) After payments have been made first to depositors in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the remaining assets of the banking company available for payment shall be utilised according to the following order of priority, namely:-

- (a) firstly, for payment of balance due to depositors in accordance with a scheme to be prepared by the State Bank;
- (b) after payments have been made to depositors in accordance with clause (a), secondly, for payment on a pro rata basis to every claimant entitled to preferential payment under section 405 of the Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984); and
- (c) after payments have been made in full in accordance with clauses (a) and (b), thirdly, for payment on a pro rata basis of the debts of the general creditors.

(6) For the purposes of this section, banking companies, financial institutions specified in sub-section (1) of section 3A, leasing companies and modaraba companies shall be treated as general creditors and not depositors.

(7) Subject to sub-section (8), in order to enable the official liquidator to have in his custody or under his control in cash as much of the assets of a banking company as possible, the securities given to every secured creditor may be redeemed by the official liquidator—

- (a) where the amount due to a creditor is more than the value of the securities as assessed by him or, as the case may be, as assessed by the official liquidator, on payment of such value; and
- (b) where the amount due to the creditor is equal to or less than the value of the securities as so assessed, on payment of the amount due.

(8) Where the official liquidator is not satisfied with the valuation made by the creditor, he may apply to the High Court for making a valuation.

(9) When any depositor, claimant or creditor to whom any payment is to be made in accordance with the foregoing provisions, cannot be found or is not readily traceable, adequate measures shall be taken by the official liquidator for such payment.

(10) For the purposes of this section, the payments specified in each of the following clauses shall be treated as payments of a different class, namely:—

- (a) payments to depositors pursuant to sub-sections (2) and (4);
- (b) payments to depositors pursuant to clause (a) of sub-section (5);
- (c) payments to preferential claimants pursuant to clause (b) of sub-section (5); and

Part IV to override other Laws.— The provisions of this Part and the rules made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], or the code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), or the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), or any other law for the time being in force or any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law; but the provisions of any such law or instrument in so far as the same are not varied by, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this Part or rules made thereunder shall apply to all proceedings under this Part.

61. Power of High Court to decide all claims in respect of banking companies.— The High Court shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in section 62, have exclusive jurisdiction to entertain and decide any claim made by or against a banking company which is being wound up (including claims by or against any of its branches in Pakistan) or any application made under section 153 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], by or in respect of a banking company or any question of priorities or any other question whatsoever, whether of law or fact, which may relate to or arise in the course of the winding up of a banking company, whether such claim or question has arisen or arises or such application has been made or is made before or after the date of the order for the winding up of the banking company or before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

62. Transfer of pending proceedings.— (1) Where a winding up order is made or has been made in respect of a banking company, no suit or other legal proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in respect of which the High Court has jurisdiction under this Ordinance and which is pending in any other court immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance or the date of the order for the winding up of the banking company, whichever is later, shall be proceeded with except in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The official liquidator shall, within three months from the date of the winding up order or the commencement of this Ordinance whichever is later or such further time as the High Court may allow, submit to the High Court a report containing a list of all such pending proceedings together with particulars thereof.

(3) On receipt of a report under sub-section (2), the High Court may, if it so thinks fit, give the parties concerned an opportunity to show cause why the proceedings should not be transferred to itself and after making an inquiry in such manner as may be provided by rules made under section 79, it shall make such order as it deems fit transferring to itself all or such of the pending proceedings as may be specified in the order and such proceedings shall thereafter be disposed of by the High Court.

(4) If any proceeding pending in a court is not so transferred to the High Court under sub-section (3), such proceeding shall be continued in the court in which the proceeding was pending.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to any proceeding pending in appeal before the Supreme Court or a High Court.

63. Settlement of list of debtors.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, the High Court may settle in the manner hereinafter provided a list of debtors of a banking company which is being wound up.

(2) Subject to any rules that may be made under section 92, the official liquidator shall, within six months from the date of the winding up order or the commencement of this Ordinance, whichever is later, from time to time, file to the High Court lists of debtors containing such particulars as are specified in the Third Schedule:

Provided that such lists may, with the leave of the High Court, be filed after the expiry of the said period of six months.

(3) On receipt of any list under sub-section (2), the High Court shall, wherever necessary, cause notices to be issued on all persons affected and after making an inquiry in such manner as may be provided by rules made under section 79, it shall make an order settling the list of debtors:

Provided that nothing in this section shall debar the High Court from settling any such list in part as against such of the persons whose debts have been settled without settling the debts of all the persons placed on the list.

(4) At the time of the settlement of any such list, the High Court shall pass an order for the payment of the amount due by each debtor and make such further orders as may be necessary in respect of the relief claimed, including reliefs against any guarantor or in respect of the realisation of any security.

(5) Every such order shall, subject to the provisions for appeal, be final and binding for all purposes as between the banking company on the one hand and the person against whom the order is passed and all persons claiming through or under him on the other hand, and shall be deemed to be a decree in a suit.

(6) In respect of every such order, the High Court shall issue a certificate specifying clearly the reliefs granted and names and descriptions of the parties against whom such reliefs have been granted, the amount of costs awarded and by whom, and out of what funds and in what proportions, such costs are to be paid; and every such certificate shall be deemed to be a certified copy of the decree for all purposes including execution.

(7) At the time of settling the list of debtors or at any other time prior or subsequent thereto, the High Court shall have power to pass any order in respect of a debtor on the application of the official liquidator for the realisation, management, protection, preservation or sale of any property given as security to the banking company and to give such powers to the official liquidator to carry out the aforesaid directions as the High Court thinks fit.

(8) The High Court shall have power to sanction a compromise in respect of any debt and to order the payment of any debt by installments.

(9) In any case in which any such lists, settled ex parte as against any person, such person may, within thirty days from the date of the order settling the list, apply to the High Court for an order to vary such list, so far as it concerns him, and if the High Court is satisfied that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed for the settlement of such list and that he has a good defence to the claim of the banking company on merits, the High Court may vary the list and pass such orders in relation thereto as it thinks fit:

Provided that the High Court may, if it so thinks fit, entertain the application after the expiry of the said period of thirty days.

(10) Nothing in this section shall—

- (a) apply to debt which has been secured by a mortgage of immovable property, if a third party has any interest in such immovable property; or
- (b) prejudice the rights of the official liquidator to recover any debt due to a banking company under any other law for the being in force.

64. Special provisions to make calls on contributories.— Notwithstanding that the list of contributories has not been settled under section 184, of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], the High Court may, if it appears to it necessary or expedient so to do, at any time after making a winding up order, make a call on and order payment thereof by any contributory under sub-section (1) of section 187 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], if such contributory has been placed on the list of contributories by the official liquidator and has not appeared to dispute his liability.

65. Documents of banking company to be evidence.— (1) Entries in the books of account or other documents of a banking company which is being wound up shall be admitted in evidence in all proceedings by or against the banking company; and all such entries may be proved either by the production of the books of account or other documents of the banking company containing such entries or by the production of a copy of the entries, certified by the official liquidator under his signature and stating that it is a true copy of the original entries and that such original entries are contained in the books of account or other documents of the banking company in his possession.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Evidence Act, 1872, all such entries in the books of account or other documents of a banking company shall as against the directors of the banking company in respect of which the winding up order has been made before the commencement of this Ordinance, be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters purporting to be therein recorded.

66. Public examination of directors and auditors.— (1) Where an order has been made for the winding up of a banking company, the official liquidator shall submit a report whether in his opinion any loss has been caused to the banking company since its formation by any act or omission (whether or not a fraud has been committed by such act or omission) of any person in the promotion or formation of the banking company or of any director or auditor of the banking company.

(2) If, on consideration of the report submitted under sub-section (1), the High Court is of opinion that any person who has taken part in the promotion or formation of the banking company or has been a director or an auditor of the banking company should be publicly examined, it shall hold a public sitting on a date to be appointed for that purpose and direct that such person, director or auditor shall attend thereat and shall be publicly examined as to the promotion or formation or the conduct of the business of the banking company, or as to his conduct and dealings, in so far as they relate to the affairs of the banking company:

Provided that no such person shall be publicly examined unless he has been given an opportunity to show cause why he should not be so examined.

(3) The official liquidator shall take part in the examination and for that purpose may, if specially authorized by the High Court in that behalf, employ such legal assistance as may be sanctioned by the High Court.

(4) Any creditor or contributory may also take part in the examination either personally or by any person entitled to appear before the High Court.

(5) The High Court may put such questions to the person examined as it thinks fit.

(6) The person examined shall be examined on oath and shall answer all such questions as the High Court may put or allow to be put to him.

(7) A person ordered to be examined under this section may, at his own cost, employ any person entitled to appear before the High Court who shall be at liberty to put to him such questions as the High Court may deem just for the purpose of enabling him to explain or qualify any answer given by him:

Provided that if he is, in the opinion of the High Court, exculpated from any charges made or suggested against him, the High Court may allow him such costs in its discretion as it may deem fit.

(8) Notes of the examination shall be taken down in writing, and shall be read over to or by, and signed by, the person examined and may thereafter be used in evidence against him in any proceeding, civil or criminal, and shall be open to the inspection of any creditor or contributory at all reasonable times.

(9) Where on such examination, the High Court is of opinion (whether a fraud has been committed or not)—

- (a) that a person who has been a director of the banking company is not fit to be a director of a company, or
- (b) that a person who has been an auditor of the banking company or a partner of a firm acting as such auditor is not fit to act as an auditor of a company or to be a partner of a firm acting as such auditor,

the High Court may make an order that that person shall not, without the leave of the High Court, be a director of, or in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be concerned or take part in the management of any company or, as the case may be, act as an auditor of, or be a partner of a firm acting as auditors of, any company for such period not exceeding five years as may be specified in the order.

67. Special provisions for assessing damages against delinquent directors, etc.—(1) Where an application is made to the High Court under section 235 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], against any promoter, director, manager, liquidator or officer of a banking company for repayment or restoration of any money or property and the applicant makes out a prima facie case against such person, the High Court shall make an order against such person to repay and restore the money or property unless he proves that he is not liable to make the repayment or restoration either wholly or in part:

Provided that where such an order is made jointly against two or more such persons, they shall be jointly and severally liable to make the repayment or restoration of the money or property.

(2) Where an application is made to the High Court under section 235 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], and the High Court has reason to believe that a property belongs to any promoter, director, manager, liquidator or officer of the banking company, whether the property stands in the name of such person or of any other person as the ostensible owner, the High Court may, at any time, whether before or after making an order under sub-section (1), direct the attachment of such property or of such portion thereof as the High Court may think fit, and when the property so attached stands in the name of an ostensible owner, it shall remain subject to attachment unless the ostensible owner can prove to the satisfaction of the High Court that he is the real owner and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), relating to attachment of property shall, as far as may be, apply to such attachment.

<sup>2</sup>[(3) For the purposes of this section and section 70 of this Ordinance and section 235 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], “property” includes property transferred or otherwise disposed of by the person referred to in sub-section (1) or any other person as ostensible owner of such property within two years preceding the commencement of proceedings under section 235 of the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], or during the currency of such proceedings, if the High Court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the transfer was otherwise than in good faith and for sufficient consideration.]

68. Duty of directors and officers of banking company to assist in the realisation of property.—Every director or other officer of a banking company which is being wound up shall give such assistance to the official liquidator as he may reasonably require in connection with the realisation and distribution of the property of the banking company.

69. Special provisions for punishing offences in relation to banking companies being wound up.—(1) The High Court may, if it thinks fit, take cognizance of and try in a summary way any offence punishable under this Ordinance or under the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], alleged to have been committed by any person who has taken part in the promotion or formation of the banking company which is being wound up or by any director, manager or officer thereof.

(2) When trying any such offence as aforesaid, the High Court may also try any other offence not referred to in sub-section (1) which is an offence with which the accused may, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), be charged at the same trial.

(3) In any case tried summarily under sub-section (1), the High Court—

- (a) need not summon any witness, if it is satisfied that the evidence of such witness will not be material;
- (b) shall not be bound to adjourn a trial for any purpose unless such adjournment is, in the opinion of the High Court, necessary in the interest of justice;
- (c) shall, before passing any sentence, record judgement embodying the substance of the evidence and also the particulars specified in section 263 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), so far as that section may be applicable; and nothing contained in sub-section (2) of section 262 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), shall apply to any such trial.

(4) All offences in relation to winding up alleged to have been committed by any person specified in sub-section (1) which are punishable under this Ordinance or under the <sup>1</sup>[Companies Ordinance, 1984 (XLVII of 1984)], and which are not tried in a summary way under sub-section (1) shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in that Act or the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), or in any other law for the time being in force, be taken cognizance of and tried by a Judge of the High Court other than the Judge for the time being dealing with the proceeding for the winding up of the banking company.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), the High Court may take cognizance of any offence under this section without the accused being committed to it for trial and all such trials shall be without the aid of a jury.
