(5) The Director General may delegate any of his powers under this section to an officer of the Authority to such extent and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

14. Penalties.— (1) If any person contravenes any order made under this Act, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, or with both and, if the order so provides, the Tribunal shall direct that any property in respect of which the Tribunal is satisfied that the order has been contravened shall be forfeited to the Government, unless for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is of the opinion that the direction should not be made in respect of the whole, or as the case may be, a part of the property.

(2) The owner of any conveyance or animal carrying any property in respect of which an order under this Act is contravened, shall, if the property is part of the transaction involving the contravention and if he knew or had reason to believe that the contravention was being committed, be deemed to have contravened the order, and, in addition to the punishment to which he is liable under sub-section (1), the conveyance or animal shall, when the order provides for forfeiture of the property in respect of which the order is contravened, be forfeited to the Government.

(3) If any person to whom a direction is given under this Act fails to comply with the direction, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, or with both.

15. Attempts and abetments.— Any person who attempts to contravene, or abets the contravention of any order made under this Act shall be deemed to have contravened that order.

16. Offences by corporation.— If the person contravening an order made under this Act is a Company or other body corporate, every director, manager, secretary or other officer or agent thereof shall, unless he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent such contravention, be deemed to be guilty of such contravention.

17. False statements.— If a person—

- (i) when required by an order made under this Act to make any statement or furnish any information, makes any statement or furnishes any information which is false in any material particular and which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, or does not believe to be true; or
- (ii) makes any such statement as aforesaid in any book, account, record, declaration, return or other document which he is required by any such order to maintain or furnish;

he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both.

18. Trials by Tribunal.— An offence punishable under this Act shall be exclusively triable by the Tribunal.

19. Constitution of Tribunals.— (1) The Government may, by notification, constitute, for the whole or any part of the Province, one or more Tribunals consisting of a person who—

- (a) has, to his credit, at least five years practice as an Advocate; or
- (b) has, for a total period of not less than three years, exercised the powers of the First Class Magistrate under the Code; or
- (c) is and has for a period of not less than ten years been in the service of Pakistan and is a law graduate.

(2) The Government shall appoint a person as presiding officer of a Tribunal who is eligible under sub-section (1).

(3) A Tribunal shall sit at such place as the Government may, by notification, specify.

20. Powers of Tribunals.— A Tribunal may pass any sentence and exercise all or any of the powers which a Magistrate of the First Class empowered under section 30 of the Code may pass or exercise under the Code.

21. Appeal.— (1) A person, sentenced by a Tribunal, may appeal to the Court of Sessions having jurisdiction in the area, within thirty days of the passing of the sentence.

(2) Save as provided in sub-section (1), no court shall take cognizance or revise a sentence, or to transfer any case from a Tribunal, or to make order under sections 426, 491 or 498 of the Code, or have jurisdiction of any kind in respect of any proceeding of a Tribunal.

22. Transfer of cases.— All cases regarding any matter within the jurisdiction of a Tribunal pending trial in any Court immediately before the constitution of a Tribunal under this Act, shall stand transferred to the Tribunal which has jurisdiction to try such case.

23. Offences and procedure.— (1) An offence under this Act shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

(2) The procedure for the trial of offences under this Act shall be the same as is laid down in the Code for summary trials on the basis of a police report or complaint submitted by the Director General, an authorized officer of the Authority or an officer notified by the Government.

(3) Nothing in this section shall preclude a Tribunal to follow the procedure laid down in the Code for the trial of summons cases by the Magistrates.

24. Bar of jurisdiction and reference to arbitration.— (1) No order made in exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act shall be called in question in any Court.

(2) Save any order passed by a Tribunal under this Act, any person aggrieved by an order made in exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act, may by an application in writing, within thirty days of the passing of the order, refer the matter to the arbitration of a sole arbitrator appointed by the Government.

(3) The Government shall appoint one or more arbitrators for all cases or different arbitrators for different classes of cases under this Act.

(4) All suits, appeals or applications regarding matters to which this Act applies, pending in any Court, except an appeal against an order preferred to the Court of Sessions or Lahore High Court, shall abate.

(5) A reference to arbitration under sub-section (2) in respect of such orders as were subject-matter of a suit, appeal or application which abated under sub-section (4), may be made to an arbitrator within thirty days of the coming into force of this Act.

25. Presumption as to orders.— Where an order purports to have been made in exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act, a Court or Tribunal shall presume that such order was so made.

26. Burden of proof in certain cases.— Where any person is prosecuted for contravening any order made under this Act which prohibits him from doing an act or being in possession of a thing without lawful authority or without a permit, licence or other document, the burden of proving that he has such authority, permit, licence or other document, shall be on that person.

27. Protection of action taken under the Act.— (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is, in good faith, done or intended to be done in pursuance of any order made under this Act.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is, in good faith, done or intended to be done in pursuance of any order made under this Act.

28. Validation and savings.— All policy instructions or directions of the Government issued before the coming into force of this Act which are not contradictory to this Act shall be deemed to be issued under this Act.

29. Officers and employees of the Authority to be public servants.— The employees of the Authority shall be deemed to be public servants within the meanings of section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code, 1860 (XLV of 1860).

30. Monitoring and Evaluation.— (1) The Government may appoint an independent agency or entity for social audit and evaluation of the performance of the Authority for a specified period.

(2) The Agency or entity shall submit its report to the Government and the Government shall lay the report in the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab.

31. Annual report.— (1) The Authority shall submit annual report of its activities to the Government at the end of a financial year.

(2) The Authority shall circulate a quarterly report of its activities to all the Members in the prescribed manner.

(3) The Government shall lay the annual report of the Authority in the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab.

32. Act to have overriding effect.— Notwithstanding anything inconsistent contained in any other law, the provisions of this Act and any order made under this Act shall have overriding effect over all other laws.

33. Power to make rules.— (1) The Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, such rules may provide for:

- (a) the manner and form of keeping the accounts of the Authority;
- (b) qualifications and procedure to be followed for appointment or recruitment of advisers, consultants, experts, officers and other employees of the Authority;
- (c) terms and conditions of employment or service of the employees of the Authority;
- (d) date on which and the form in which the annual budget statement of the Authority shall be submitted to the Government each year;
- (e) procedure for appropriation and re-appropriation of moneys at the disposal of the Authority;
- (f) form and manner in which the accounts of receipts and expenditure of the Authority shall be kept;
- (g) manner in, which accounts of the Authority shall be audited;
- (h) manner in which audit reports shall be submitted to the Government;
- (i) manner and form in which and the authority to whom returns, reports, or statements shall be submitted;
- (j) establishment, composition, powers and duties of various committees which may be established under the Act; and
- (k) such other matters relating to the administration and other affairs of the Authority as the Government may think fit to prescribe.

34. Power to frame regulations.— The Authority may, with the previous approval of the Government, frame regulations for matters not provided for in the rules for which provision is necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of the Act.

35. Transition.— All matters relating to the sasti roti initiative of the Government shall be transferred to the Authority through a notification to be issued under this Act.
