¹THE WORKERS' CHILDREN (EDUCATION) ORDINANCE, 1972.

ORDINANCE NO. XI OF 1972

[13th April, 1972]

An Ordinance to provide for the education of workers' children and matters ancillary thereto.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the education of workers' children and for matters ancillary thereto;

AND WHEREAS the national interest of Pakistan in relation to the economic and financial stability of Pakistan and the achievement of uniformity requires Central legislation in the matter;

NOW, THEREFORE, in pursuance of the Proclamation of the 25th day of March, 1969, read with the Proclamation of the 20th day of December, 1971, and the Provisional Constitution Order, and in exercise of all powers enabling him in that behalf, the President is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance :—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Workers' Children (Education) Ordinance, 1972.

(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions. In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) “employer”, in relation to an establishment, means the person who has ultimate control over the affairs of the establishment;

²[(b) “establishment” means any office, firm, industrial unit, undertaking, shop or premises in which workers are employed for the purpose of carrying on any business, trade, manufacture, calling, service, employment or occupation;]

(c) “worker” means any person employed, whether directly or through any other person, in any establishment to do any skilled or unskilled, manual or clerical work for hire or reward whose monthly wages do not exceed ³[⁴[three thousand] rupees] but does not include—

(i) Persons in the service of the State including members of the Armed Forces, Police Force and Railway servants;

(ii) Persons employed in any undertaking under the control of any Defence organisation or Railway administration;

¹The Ordinance has been applied to the Provincially Administered Tribal Areas or to the parts of those areas to which it does not already apply, see Regulation No.1 of 1972, s.2 and Sch.,
