'THE PUNJAB DEBTORS' PROTECTION ACT, 1936 (II of 1936)

[12 June 1936]

An Act

to provide for the more effective protection of debtors in the Punjab.

Preamble.— WHEREAS it is expedient for the more effective protection of debtors to modify the existing law on certain points and to amend the law with respect to persons carrying on business as money-lenders;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General under sub-section (3) of section 80-A of the Government of India Act and the previous sanction of the Governor under section 80-C of the said Act have been obtained;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Punjab Debtors' Protection Act, 1936.

(2) It extends to the Punjab.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "Bank" means a company carrying on the business of banking and registered under any of the enactments relating to companies for the time being in force in the United Kingdom, or in any of the Colonies or Dependencies thereof, or in ²[Pakistan], or incorporated by an Act of Parliament ⁴[of the United Kingdom] or by Royal Charter or Letters Patent or by any Act of the ⁵[Parliament].

¹For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Punjab Gazette, 1935, Part I, p. 249; for Report of the Select Committee, see Punjab Gazette, 1935, Part V, pp. 49-50; for Proceedings in Council, see Punjab Legislative Council Debates, Volume XXVI, pp. 988-989; Volume XXVII, pp. 1137-1174, 1177-1210, 1238-1247; Volume XXVIII, pp. 903, 1003-1028. This Act received the assent of the Governor of the Punjab on 16th April, 1936; that of the Governor-General on 30th May, 1936; published in the Punjab Gazette (Extraordinary), dated 6th June, 1936 and also published in the Punjab Gazette, Part I, dated June 12, 1936, pp. 612-614.

¹6-A. Revision.— The ²[Board of Revenue] may, at any time, call for and examine the record of any order passed, or proceedings taken by the Collector or the ³⁴[Commissioner]] under this Act for the purpose of satisfying ⁵[itself] as to the legality or propriety of such order or such proceedings and may pass such order thereon as ⁶[it] may think fit.]

7. Limitation for appeals.— The period of limitation for an appeal under the last foregoing section shall run from the date of the order appealed against and shall be sixty days.

8. Rules to be made after previous publication.— The ⁷[Provincial Government] may, subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of sections 4, 5, 6 and 7 of this Chapter.

9. Exemption of ancestral property from liability.— When custom is the rule of decision in regard to succession to immovable property then, notwithstanding any custom to the contrary, ancestral immovable property in the hands of a subsequent holder shall not be liable in the execution of a decree or order of a court relating to a debt incurred by any of his predecessors in interest:

Provided that, when the debt has been expressly charged by way of mortgage on ancestral immovable property by a predecessor in interest, the court shall determine the liability of such land as if this section had not been passed:

Provided further, and subject to the foregoing proviso, that, in respect of a debt incurred before the commencement of this Act, ancestral property in the hands of a subsequent holder may be liable, only if all the following conditions are satisfied:—

First.— That, before such liability is determined, the judgment-debtor shall be given sufficient opportunity to show cause against such liability.

Second.— That such liability was permitted by the rule of custom applicable to the judgment-debtor immediately before the commencement of this Act, and nothing in this section shall prevent the judgment-debtor from proving the contrary.

Third.— That the decree-holder is able to show to the satisfaction of the court that, at the time the debt was originally incurred, there was a subsisting judgment or order of a competent court, not in ex parte proceedings, holding that such a custom was applicable to the sub-tribe in the tahsil to which the judgment-debtor belongs.

Fourth.— That the judgment-debtor is not able to show to the satisfaction of the court that, at the time the debt was originally incurred, there was a subsisting judgment or order of a competent court not in ex-parte proceedings, holding to the contrary and subsequent to the judgment relied upon by the decree-holder.

10. Exemption of standing crops and trees from attachment or sale.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other enactment for the time being in force:—

- (1) standing crops, other than cotton and sugarcane, shall not be liable to attachment or sale in the execution of a decree;
- (2) standing trees apart from the land on which they stand shall not be liable to sale in the execution of a decree or an order of a court.

11. Execution barred in certain cases.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other enactment for the time being in force, where an application has been made to execute a decree passed after the commencement of this Act against a debtor as defined in sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Punjab Relief of Indebtedness Act, 1934, and not being a decree granting an injunction, no order for the execution of the same decree shall be made upon any fresh application presented after the expiration of six years from—

- (a) the date of the decree sought to be executed, or
 - (b) where the decree or any subsequent order directs any payment of money or the delivery of any property to be made at a certain date or at recurring periods, the date of the default in making the payment of delivery in respect of which the applicant seeks to execute the decree.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed—
- (a) to preclude the Court from ordering the execution of a decree upon an application presented after the expiration of the said term of six years, where the judgment-debtor has, by fraud or force, prevented the execution of the decree at some time within six years immediately before the date of the application; or
 - (b) to limit or otherwise affect the operation of Article 183 of the First Schedule to the ¹[*] Limitation Act, 1908.

²[11-A.Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, no decree for the payment of money shall be executed by the sale without attachment, or by the appointment of a receiver of land or the produce of land or an interest in land, which under any law for the time being in force, is exempt from attachment or sale.]
