7. Amendment in Act XVI of 2013.— In the Punjab Finance Act 2013 (XVI of 2013):

- (a) in section 2, clause (a) shall be omitted; and
- (b) section 10 shall be omitted.

8. Luxury house tax.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, there shall be charged, levied, assessed and paid a tax, known as luxury house tax, on categories of residential house and at such rate as specified in the First Schedule, located on the immovable property in the limits of: (a) a notified rating area under the Punjab Urban Immoveable Property Tax Act, 1958 (V of 1958); (b) a cantonment under the Cantonment Act, 1924 (II of 1924); and (c) any other area within the Province as notified by the Government at the rate specified for the remaining rating areas and cantonments under the First Schedule.

(2) The tax shall be charged, levied, assessed and paid in addition to any other tax charged and collected under any other law for the time being in force and shall be the first charge upon the residential house.

(3) The liability to pay the tax shall be of the owner or occupant, jointly and severally.

(4) The tax shall be paid once either in lump sum on or before September 30, 2014 or in four equal quarterly instalments with first instalment payable on or before September 30, 2014 and the subsequent three equal instalments being payable on or before the last day of each concerned quarter.

(5) In the event a residential house is constructed after the commencement of this Act, the tax shall be charged, levied, assessed and paid in the above manner and, in such a case, the tax shall be payable in lump sum on or before the last day of the first quarter falling after the completion of construction and, in case of payment in instalments, first instalment being payable on or before last day of the first quarter falling after the completion of construction and the subsequent three equal instalments being payable on or before the last day of each concerned quarter thereafter.

(6) In case of lump sum payment, a rebate @ 10% shall be admissible if tax is paid on or before the date fixed for payment.

(7) Any person who fails to pay the tax or any part thereof within the prescribed time limit, whether wilfully or otherwise, shall in addition to the amount of the tax be liable to pay default surcharge at the rate of one percent per month of the amount of tax due under this section.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), an area, residential house or a person specified in any of the categories mentioned in the Second Schedule shall be exempt from the levy and payment of the tax.

- (9) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (8):

- (a) the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any area within the limits specified in subsection (1), or any residential house or person, from the whole or any part of the tax chargeable under this section, subject to the conditions and limitations specified in the notification; and
- (b) the grievance committee may in an individual case of hardship, by special order in each case stating the reasons, exempt any residential house as may be specified from payment of the whole or any part of the tax charged under subsection (1) or from the payment of default surcharge under subsection (7).

(10) Subject to the provisions of this section, the tax including surcharge payable under subsection (7) shall, as nearly as possible, be paid, recovered, administered and regulated as if it is a tax under the Punjab Urban Immoveable Property Tax Act, 1958 (V of 1958).

(11) In case of any dispute relating to tax or exemption from the payment of the tax, a person may file an application before the grievance committee and subject to subsection (12), decision of the grievance committee on such dispute shall be final.

(12) Any person or an officer aggrieved by the decision of a grievance committee may, within fifteen days from the date of communication of the decision, prefer an appeal to the <sup>3</sup>[Additional Director General, Excise and Taxation, Punjab].

(13) The Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes and giving effect to the provisions of this section.

(14) In this section:

- (a) “completion of construction” means the day when a house is ready for occupation or two years from the date of installation of electricity connection, whichever is earlier;
- (b) “covered area” means the built up area included in the floor of a residential house and where a residential house has more than one floor, the aggregate area in all the floors together;
- (c) “grievance committee” means a committee of three officers notified by the Government to discharge the functions under this section in any area specified in the notification;
- (d) “residential house” means building or any other structure built on immoveable property measuring two kanals or more and having a minimum covered area of six thousand square feet; and
- (e) “tax” means the luxury house tax on a residential house charged, levied and assessed under this section.

(15) A word or term used in this section but not defined shall have the same meaning as assigned to it under the Punjab Urban Immoveable Property Tax Act, 1958 (V of 1958).

(16) Notwithstanding the omission of section 10 of the Punjab Finance Act 2013 (XVI of 2013), if a person has paid whole or part of the tax under that section, he may claim adjustment of an equivalent amount from the tax charged, levied, assessed and payable under this section.
